Villa Milana boasts a prime hillside setting in Borak, under four kilometres from the historic town of Omis, where the Cetina River meets the Adriatic. Known as the 'Pirate Town', Omis is rich in history, with ancient churches, fortresses, and a dramatic coastline of jagged cliffs and turquoise sea. The town offers excellent dining, shopping and entertainment, including the lively Omis Summer Festival with a cappella concerts and pirate performances. Adventurous visitors can enjoy rafting, canyoning, rock climbing, kayaking and ziplining in the Cetina River canyon.

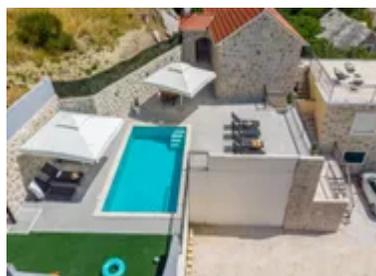

From Omis, you can take boat trips to the nearby islands of Brac, Hvar and Vis, or venture inland to explore the scenic Cetina River valley. The vibrant city of Split, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is also nearby. Its standout attractions include Diocletian's Palace, the Golden Gate and the Cathedral of Saint Domnius. A guided tour or evening stroll along the Riva promenade is highly recommended.

Further south, the Makarska Riviera beckons with beautiful beaches such as Brela, Baska Voda and Makarska. The Biokovo Skywalk offers unforgettable panoramic views. Island-hopping is also a must—Brac's Zlatni Rat Beach, local wines, and historic white stone make it a standout.
