Location & Local Information

Casa Ervideira is located inside a family Estate, surrounded by an astonishing pine and cork oak forest in a small town called Ervideira. The tranquillity of nature and the splendour of mesmerising sunsets make this charming villa feel like a private retreat, offering all the peace and quiet you could need. Yet, situated just twenty-five minutes from the Comporta coastline and with Lisbon comfortably one hour away, Casa Ervideira gives you the best of both, offering endless activities and places to see during your stay.

With so much to see and do in this area, we are sure you will be planning a trip back again before long! For long days on the beach, the sandy Comporta coastline is fantastic, from the beautiful surfing beaches to the stylish restaurant-lined bays. Carvalho Beach is a popular choice, a 30-minute drive from the villa, and we can never resist a sunset at Praia da Aberta Nova. Most of the beaches offer sun loungers and day beds, with plenty of spots to grab refreshments throughout the day. Comporta's surfing beaches boast two surf schools which offer courses for all ages and levels.

For golf lovers, Comporta is the place for you; the fantastic Comporta Dunes course was designed by David McLay Kidd within a stunning terrain of pine forest and sand dunes close to Pego beach. Troia championship golf course is also nearby, designed by the famous golf architect Robert Trent Jones.

This area has long been known for its vineyards and wine production, producing some delicious white, red and rose wines. This rich history dates to the Roman Empire, and there is evidence of that history woven throughout agriculture and architecture. With this in mind, we would highly recommend a trip to a winery during your stay or a visit to the many wine bars and shops in Lisbon. You may even spot the Ervideira wines as you shop around.

An hour's drive from the villa, you will reach the vibrant, cosmopolitan city of Lisbon. Food, music and wine weave their way into every nook and cranny of this lively city, and a day trip or overnight stay is definitely recommended.
