

Cas CorpX

Region: Ibiza Sleeps: 8

Overview

Located in Sa Coma on a private estate, just ten minutes from the island's capital, is Cas Corp, a four-bedroom villa that can host up to eight guests. Designed on a single floor for easy accessibility, it blends rustic charm with modern functionality.

The villa boasts whitewashed walls, tiled floors, and beamed ceilings, complemented by plush furnishings like soft grey sofas and spacious beds. Its cozy lounge area features an open fireplace, comfortable seating, and entertainment amenities like satellite TV and WiFi, ideal for unwinding with loved ones.

The kitchen is generously sized and fully equipped with essentials like an oven, microwave, toaster, coffee machine, and ample cookware. A wooden dining table offers indoor dining options, while a washing machine and dryer add convenience.

With three double bedrooms and a twin room, the villa accommodates families comfortably. Two modern shower rooms provide convenience for guests.

Outside, the villa's grounds feature a furnished terrace alongside a private pool surrounded by fruit trees and wildflowers. An outdoor dining space with a barbecue and wood-fired oven invites alfresco dining against the backdrop of olive trees and vineyards.

Location & Local Information

Casa Corp offers guests seclusion and privacy, all while only being ten minutes from the island's capital Ibiza Town - it really is the best of both worlds! The town is one of the oldest in Europe and is best known for its glorious white sandy beaches and lively and vibrant nightlife. There is something for everyone here, including legendary nightclubs, world-class restaurants and a fantastic selection of bars. Visitors who love to shop until they drop out won't be disappointed as the town is home to a variety of boutiques and high-end fashion stores, as well as plenty of places to pick up some unique novelties and souvenirs.

Visitors are just as likely to come here for the town's art galleries and museums as they are to party, and with so many to choose from, you'll find plenty on offer if you want to indulge in a little history and culture. Much of the architecture and layout here has remained untouched since the 1600s, and the town is still home to the Catalan Castle, which was built in 1235, as well as the Gothic cathedral that boasts incredible coastline views. After soaking up the amazing historical sights, take a stroll through Ibiza Town's back streets, where you'll get to witness colourful parades and street performers, before heading down to the port and seeing how the other half live with some of the biggest and most expensive yachts in the world on show.

Eating out could not be simpler while in Ibiza Town, with restaurants and eateries offering cuisines from all over the world, from traditional Spanish tapas and Asian fusion to familiar chains such as Hard Rock Cafe, McDonalds and Burger King. As night falls, Ibiza Town really comes into its own, with hundreds of independent, quirky and lively bars offering beers, wines and cocktails, and most showcasing live entertainment. If clubbing is your thing, you'll be in your element here as the town is home to Pacha - the original super club and one of the biggest and most famous on the island. Here you can enjoy a variety of lively themed nights that will take you through into the morning and beyond!

What we love

- Cas Corp's single-storey layout makes it a great choice of accommodation for families with young children and those with limited mobility
- This villa is set in peaceful and tranquil surroundings whilst also being just a short distance from Ibiza Town
- With three double bedrooms and one twin room, Cas Corp is the perfect set-up for families

What you should know...

- Casa Corp's large pool has no fence or safety barrier, so parents will want to ensure that younger children are well-supervised while playing in the vicinity
- None of the bedrooms at the villa have ensuite facilities
- Although the villa offers great accessibility, it's worth noting that there are some small steps inside and outside the property
