Surrounded by rolling countryside, this location is ideal for guests who enjoy outdoor activities - including scenic countryside paths and trails perfect for hiking and nature walks right from your doorstep. The varied landscape around San Rafael also invites exploration by bike or foot, with rural terrain and gentle hills to discover.

Beach lovers and water enthusiasts are well placed too. The popular bays of Cala Bassa, Cala Conta, and Cala Salada are within easy reach, offering golden sands, crystal waters, and beach clubs. What we love

- Villa Bibo's single-storey layout makes it a great accommodation choice for those who have young children, older guests, and those with limited mobility (please see the T&Cs for more information)
- The villa features some beautiful mountain views as well as a table tennis table, football pitch and private swimming pool!
- All of the bedrooms at Villa Bibo have en-suite facilities, ideal for those looking for a little more privacy

What you should know...

- Villa Bibo is gated and private, but there are other properties relatively close by, so perhaps not ideal for those searching for somewhere more remote
- The private pool is at ground level and unfenced, and although there is plenty of space around the pool to walk safely, it's advised that younger children are well supervised when playing in the area
- A hire car is recommended for those staying at Villa Bibo so guests can make the most of all the island has to offer
