Location & Local Information

Can Calbet is located near Ibiza Town, the island’s capital and one of the oldest towns in Europe. Guests flock here to enjoy the island’s notorious nightlife, spectacular beaches and eateries, and museums and indulge in some retail therapy! Visitors who love to shop until they drop won’t be disappointed as the town is home to a variety of boutiques and high-end fashion stores, as well as plenty of places to pick up some unique novelties and souvenirs.

Ibiza Town draws a very international crowd, and in the summer months, you may even spot a few celebs - but the region isn’t just a party town, and there’s much to enjoy in history and culture. Much of the architecture and layout here has remained untouched since the 1600s, and the town is still home to the Catalan Castle, built in 1235, and the Gothic cathedral that boasts incredible coastline views. After soaking up the amazing historical sights, take a stroll through Ibiza Town’s back streets, where you’ll get to witness colourful parades and street performers, before heading down to the port and seeing how the other half live with some of the biggest and most expensive yachts in the world on show.

Eating out could not be simpler in Ibiza Town, with restaurants and eateries offering cuisines from all over the world, from traditional Spanish tapas and Asian fusion to familiar chains such as Hard Rock Cafe, Mcdonalds and Burger King. As night falls, Ibiza Town comes into its own, with hundreds of independent, quirky and lively bars offering beers, wines and cocktails, and most showcasing live entertainment. If clubbing is your thing, you'll be in your element here as the town is home to Pacha - the original super club and one of the biggest and most famous on the island. Here you can enjoy a variety of lively themed nights that will take you through into the morning and beyond!
