Location & Local Information

Villa Ada Manzara is set on the hillside of Kisla, to the east of the charming harbour town of Kalkan on Turkey's renowned Turquoise Coast. Just one hundred and twenty-five kilometres from Dalaman Airport, the scenic one-and-a-half-hour drive winds through the Turkish countryside and the Taurus Mountains. Once a Greek enclave known as Kalamaki, Kalkan's old town reveals its Ottoman and Hellenic heritage through cobbled streets, whitewashed houses adorned with vibrant bougainvillaea, and a thriving dining scene with over one hundred and fifty restaurants, cafés, and bars, alongside artisan boutiques and souvenir shops.

A short walk from the villa brings you to a local mini market, while a three-minute drive into Kalkan offers supermarkets, shops, banks, and a bustling Thursday market, ideal for stocking up on essentials. Within walking distance are several of Kalkan's most exclusive beach clubs, offering bathing platforms, fine dining, and, in some cases, pools and spa facilities. Villa Ada Manzara is perched just above the acclaimed Villa Mahal, perfect for candlelit dinners by the sea, or spend a leisurely day at Zest with its wood-fired pizzas and infinity pool.

Enjoy a complimentary water taxi across the bay or take a private boat trip, perhaps a gulet charter, for swimming, snorkelling, and on-board meze. Kalkan also boasts a central pebble beach, while nearby Kaputas Beach and Patara's vast sandy stretch offer further coastal escapes. Inland, explore ancient Lycian sites such as Xanthos, Letoon, and Tlos, or follow the Lycian Way trail for dramatic views and historic wonders. Finish your day in town with a Turkish hammam or a visit to the boutiques of Fethiye and Kas.
