Surrounded by a well-maintained garden with a grassy lawn, flowers and leafy trees, the villa enjoys beautiful views across the surrounding hills, giving a sneak peak into the stunning landscapes that fill this area.

The historic town of Umbertide, just 10km away, has been here for over 2000 years and boasts an array of exquisitely preserved buildings and sites to see, including archaeological remains, museums, a fortress, castle and the stunning Church of Santa Maria della Pietà, which contains 15th-century frescoes. With shops and restaurants scattered around the pretty streets, you can easily spend the afternoon here, and we would recommend picking up some of the local ceramics which the area is known for.

Another nearby place to visit is Montone, which can be reached by car in just 20 minutes and has picture-perfect scenery that is hard to draw your gaze away from. This walled village offers lots of fascinating sights, from the Consul's palace and St Francis' church to a number of museums and a theatre that hosts outdoor musical concerts in the summer.

For nature and outdoor lovers, this lush region is a brilliant choice. Lake Trasimeno is under an hour's drive away and is lined with beaches, ideal for swimming and sunbathing. You can also spot plenty of wildlife around the lake, including kingfishers, cormorants and kites.

The nearby Antognolla golf resort boasts an 18-hole course but also has tennis courts, hiking trails, bicycle hire and restaurants, perfect for filling a day with fun activities.

Perugia, the capital of Umbria, can be reached within a 40-minute drive. A university city, it is renowned for its vibrant atmosphere and historic centre. The main square and maze of backstreets look like they have remained unchanged for centuries, with artisan shops, charming restaurants and countless cultural attractions. Palazzo dei Priori, a staggering 13th century palace, is not to be missed. The city is also famed for its chocolate, with shops around every corner and a Eurochocolate Festival taking place in October.
