

Moradia Bravaes

Region: Portugal Sleeps: 10

Overview

Set in the scenic Minho region, Moradia Bravaes offers a generous, well-designed retreat ideal for families or groups seeking both comfort and outdoor living. The villa's spacious garden is laid with well-kept lawns - perfect for sunbathing, games, or relaxing afternoons. A large swimming pool provides a refreshing spot to cool off, while a series of furnished terraces invite guests to unwind and enjoy the surrounding countryside.

Inside, the villa blends solid materials with personal touches. The main living space is warm and welcoming, with deep leather seating and plenty of room for everyone to gather. A farmhouse-style dining area centres around a robust wooden table, ideal for long meals and easy conversation. The kitchen is full of character, featuring practical appliances and a quirky bar area for casual drinks or morning coffees.

Upstairs, five bedrooms offer flexible sleeping arrangements. Two twin rooms suit children or friends sharing, while three double rooms provide space and comfort for adults. With restful interiors and a layout made for relaxed holidays, Moradia Bravaes balances functionality with a strong sense of place.

Interior & Grounds

The Villa

Located in the municipality of Ponte da Barca, in the north of Portugal, and built in 1896, Quinta do Mosteiro has been a part of the Bouças family for the past four generations. Once a grocery store playing a key role in the daily life of the village, it has been transformed into a charming rural guesthouse since its restoration in 2016.

Location & Local Information

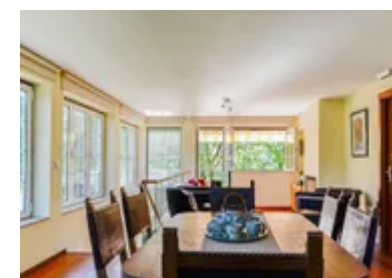

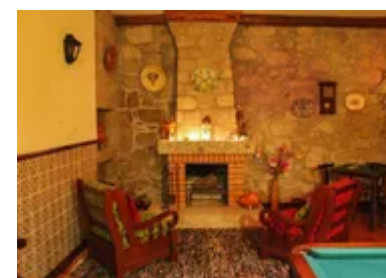

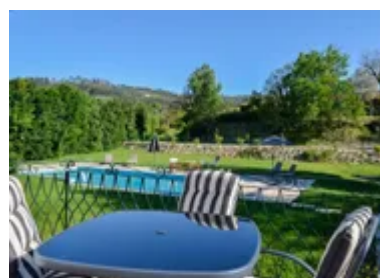

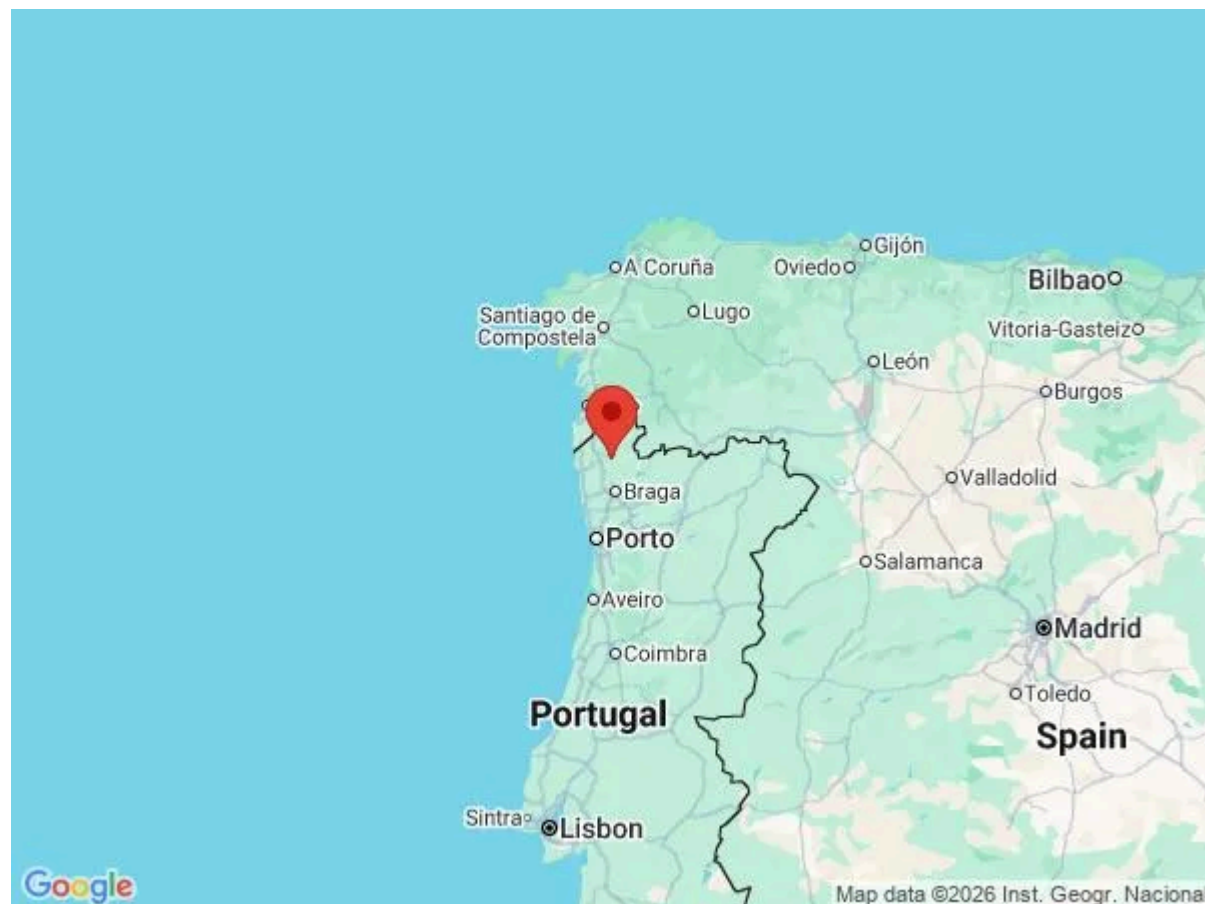

Moradia Bravaes is set in Portugal's northern Minho region, an area known for its natural beauty, historical depth, and strong local identity. Just under an hour away lies Peneda-Gerês National Park, home to traditional villages, mountain trails, and native wildlife like cachena cattle and autochthonous sheep. It's a rewarding destination for hiking, exploring rural heritage, or spotting ancient landmarks such as the Roman Road and Castro Laboreiro Castle.

Food is a regional highlight, with hearty local dishes and fire-grilled specialities. Flor de Minho, a popular restaurant around 55 minutes from the villa, is a favourite for its relaxed atmosphere and robust flavours - think grilled pork tenderloin and turkey steaks served with no fuss.

For history lovers, Guimarães Castle - linked to Portugal's first king - is around 50 minutes away. Visitors can tour the grounds, climb the ramparts, and take in wide-reaching views across the birthplace of a nation.
