Location & Local Information

In the tranquil village of Županje, Villa Moonlight offers a serene escape on the Croatian coast. Surrounded by stunning landscapes, it provides a peaceful retreat amidst the bustling region. Just a short distance from the city centre, with its vibrant shops and local charm, and a quick drive to Šilo's restaurants and beaches, the villa combines convenience with tranquillity. Spend leisurely days exploring the pebbled beaches of nearby Crikvenica, perfect for a relaxed family outing, or venture further to discover Pula's remarkable Roman architecture and historic sites, including the impressive Pula Arena.

For nature enthusiasts, Brijuni National Park beckons with its dinosaur footprints and underground tunnel systems from World War II. Don't miss the opportunity to experience the vibrant atmosphere of Pula Market Hall, where locally harvested vegetables, cheese, and a variety of fish await. Indulge in the flavours of Croatia with a sumptuous burek from one of the many nearby bakeries, completing your immersive journey into the region's rich culture and natural beauty.

What we love

- Pets are welcome, so make sure to bring your furry friends along.
- The villa is kid-friendly in every sense. The garden area is safely-fenced and parents can opt for baby cots and high chairs.
- While the villa is a quiet, serene retreat, you're never too far from a teeming nightlife.

What you should know...

- Guests are required to share the bathroom.
- The living room features a sofa-bed that sleeps two guests.
- We recommened hiring a car so you can explore the beauty the area has to offer
