Location & Local Information

Can Vibra is situated on the western coast of Ibiza, near the popular town of Sant Antoni de Portmany and the charming village of San Josep, nestled slightly inland on Sa Talaia, Ibiza’s tallest mountain. The village is known for its quaint church and stunning coastal vistas, offering a traditional atmosphere far from the island’s renowned party scene.

Life in San Josep is relaxed, with plenty of cosy bars and restaurants serving delicious Ibicencan cuisine, seafood, and tapas. Visitors can also explore local shops offering handmade goods, fashion items, antiques, and children’s toys.

A short distance from the villa lies San Agustin, one of the island’s best-preserved villages. With picturesque views of the San Jose hills and countryside, it’s a must-visit destination. The 19th-century Esglesia de Sant Agusti church and traditional-style houses add to its charm, while a quaint restaurant and art gallery provide additional attractions.

For those with transportation, Can Vibra is a short drive from Cala Bassa and Cala Conta beaches, renowned for their beauty. Cala Bassa is family-friendly, featuring wooden walkways for easy access and various water activities. Cala Conta offers similar amenities, with shallow waters, snorkeling spots, and stunning island views, though swimming far from the shore is not advised due to strong currents.

What you should know...

- Guests should note that the couple who manage the exterior of the property reside in a house on the same plot
- A hire car is recommended for stays at Can Vibra so guests can easily access the nearby towns and beaches - whilst restaurants and bars are in walking distance from the villa, it should be noted that there for part of the way the road is unpaved
