This monumental church is best known for presenting a wealth of architectural motifs, all within the confines of one building. The exterior boasts a classic Neo-Gothic style, whereas the interior showcases a unique blend of Medieval, Gothic, Baroque, and Modern stylings.

Since this region is encircled by a plethora of crystal-clear water, guests are highly encouraged to embark on a thrilling scuba diving excursion. Octopus Mallorca, in Port de Soller, is a prized driving school that is often commended for its wide use of specialist equipment and exceptional safety precautions. As such, guests will have access to everything they would need to enjoy a safe and thought-provoking dive. Once you are fully submerged underwater, you will come across a wealth of beautiful marine wildlife, including seahorses and jellyfish, making this a truly unforgettable experience. Torre Picada is another remarkable landmark within this region and can be found around 15 minutes away from the villa. This looming monument was used extensively up until the 19th century as a way to assess the number of illegal goods entering the region as well as to monitor the direction of planes during the Spanish Civil War. In order to reach this tower, guests will travel up a very steep hill and follow along a very steep cart track. Once at the top of the tower, you will be inundated with vast views of the entire region and its opulent surrounding areas.
