The property is built out of classic white washed Mediterranean stone, and floor to ceiling that floods the villa with natural light. For your comfort and entertainment the apartment comes complete with complimentary air conditioning and Wi-Fi throughout, and there is adjacent on street parking. For some fun in the sun and to keep fit too each apartment has its own private swimming pool, and access to a small on site gym.

The large open plan living space is a bright and airy, with floor to ceiling picture windows, that offer views of the Mediterranean Sea, the Taurus Mountains, or Kalkan harbour and its beautiful bay. The seating area has a large soft grey L-shaped sofa, a matching armchair, and a coffee table facing a flat screen satellite television. There is a wooden dining table with six upholstered chairs, ideal for some indoor entertaining. The adjacent white and brown kitchen is well equipped with everything you will need to cater for a happy holiday, including an American style family size fridge freezer, a washing machine and dishwasher, a microwave and toaster, built-in oven and hob, and lots of kitchenwares. There are three spacious double bedrooms, all with ensuite shower rooms, wardrobes, dressing and bedside tables, and not forgetting the hairdryers. The large master bedroom is charmingly furnished in a light wood, with a cappuccino coloured padded double bed with plum trim, matching furniture, and an ensuite beige ensuite bathroom with a walk-in shower, single basin and WC. Location & Local Information

Liyan Ev is located in the exclusive residential area of Ortolaan, at the top of the quaint harbour town of Kalkan, situated on Turkey's Turquoise Coast, the jewel of the Mediterranean Sea. The town of Kalkan is 125 kilometres from Dalaman Airport, a scenic one and a half hour journey through the Turkish countryside and Taurus mountains. Originally a Greek enclave called Kalamaki, Ottoman and Hellenic influences can be found in the winding cobbled streets of the old town, full of traditional white houses, festooned with brightly coloured bougainvillea. Kalkan is home to a reputed one hundred and fifty restaurants, cafes, and bars, and lots of souvenir and craft shops, full of goodies you'll want to take home. From the villa it is a short walk to the local mini market for your daily provisions. Take a three minute drive into Kalkan where you can find supermarkets, shops, banks, and a fabulous Thursday market selling fresh local produce and hand crafted souvenirs.

The nearest beach can be found five minutes' drive away by the harbour, it is a pebble beach with calm clear waters, sun loungers and parasols for hire, and a local café for refreshments. Alternatively hop on one of the many private water taxis to whisk you away to a beach club of your choice. There are fifteen very different beach clubs populating the Kalkan coastline, from the sophisticated Villa Mahal and laid back Indigo, to the family friendly Kalkan Beach Park and the beautifully staged Zest with its huge adult and kids' infinity pools. Travel further afield to the stunning Kaputas Beach, set in a natural gorge, it's only two hundred steps down, and two hundred back up again. Or take a trip to Patara, where you will find two two-thousand year old amphitheatres, ancient ruins, and fortifications, and twenty kilometres of unspoilt golden sands, with a protected area for the hatching Caretta Caretta turtles.

No stay in Kalkan is complete without a boat trip from the harbour, whether it's a shared one with family and friends, or why not charter your own private gulet for a day at sea with your favourite captain and crew, it is the stuff memories are made of. All aboard for a day of swimming and snorkelling in beautiful bays, enjoy a meal of local homecooked meze, take afternoon tea aboard, and then sail back to harbour, cocktail in hand to watch the famous sunsets.

Back on dry land don't miss the opportunity to experience an authentic Turkish hammam, enjoy the heat and bubbles of a hands-on massage, and be pampered in one of the many super spas all over town. For those with itchy feet the Lycian Way walking trail cuts through Kalkan. Follow in the footsteps of thousands of years of history, as you trek the trail taking you through major archaeological sites, local villages, dramatic coastlines, and the areas' flora and fauna. Take a short journey to the town of Kinik, where you can step back in time to the Lycian city of Xanthos. Follow the D400 to Fethiye, and discover the historical sites of Patara, Letoon, Tlos, and Pinara, where you can see the ancient ruins, amphitheatres and temples with Lycian, Greek, Roman, and Byzantine influences. The harbour town of Fethiye is also full of ancient sites worth seeing, as well as a foodie-heaven fish market, and home to some seriously good designer labels and fabulous jewellery shopping. Whilst the nearer town of Kas is just twenty-five kilometres in the other direction; it's worth the journey alone along one of the world's most stunning and dramatic coastlines. Walk through the harbour to the cobbled streets full of Ottoman architecture and overhanging balconies festooned with pastel coloured bougainvillaea, barter for unique handmade and antique goods in its many shops, and make memories dining in one of the traditional restaurants serving authentic Turkish cuisine with mesmerising sea views. If you are feeling intercontinental, hop on the twenty-minute ferry from Kas to the Greek island of Meis, known locally as Kastellorizo, where you can swim in the beautiful Blue Cave, then dine alfresco under a Grecian sky by the water's edge.

What we love

- Liyan Ev is perfectly formed and extremely practical, this modern villa is a great family size villa with three spacious ensuite bathrooms on one floor, and the living space on another, and has everything you will need for a happy holiday
- The villa is enclosed by a traditional high pale stone wall, which gives the property a sense of both privacy yet intimacy at the same time
- Liyan Ev is located in Ortaalan, a lovely residential area at the top of Kalkan town, it is an easy stroll to the local supermarkets, banks, and Thursday market. A little bit further down and you are in the old town, with its rooftop restaurants, bars and cafes, and harbour with daily gulet trips out to sea, and if you don't fancy going that far nip on a water taxi to one of the fifteen beach clubs dotted along the coast

What you should know...

- In the same small block there is a similar size three bed ensuite duplex apartment below Liyan Ev, which could be rented together for a large family holiday, or group of friends' get together
- Liyan Ev is located on a gentle hill in the residential area of Ortaalan, but the walk into town and back could be a bit steep, a great daily workout, and for those who don't fancy it, there is always lots of inexpensive local taxis
- We recommend hiring a car to get the most out of your holiday and see all the sights you wish to see, whether it's simply shopping in town, going down to the harbour for a boat trip, or venturing further afield
