Location & Local Information

Set in south-eastern Corsica around 12km north of Porto Vecchio, Villa U Riposu is wonderfully located as guests can choose between lazy days at the pool and exploring nearby beaches or busy days out discovering the charms of historic villages and towns.

You will likely spend quite a lot of time down by Plage de Saint Cyprien and the seaside village which the beach backs on to. This incredibly beautiful bay, just over 5km away, has turquoise water which is calm for swimming as well as soft, white sand making it a perfect beach for the whole family. If you are feeling adventurous you can try out windsurfing, jet skiing or even parachuting over the water or you may prefer the range of summer restaurants either by the beachside or a short stroll away.

There are plenty more beaches you can visit nearby, including the unique Plage de Cala Rossa (8km) with its red-toned sand, surrounded by ancient woodlands and featuring two restaurants. Further south, the breathtaking Palombaggia Beach is also worthy of the 23km drive, one of the island's most famous beaches – head there early to avoid the summer crowds.

Though Corsica is known for the beauty of its coastline, visitors should also spend time making the most of the inland walking and hiking routes which offer staggering views – look out for a range of outdoor adventures in the Col de Bavella and Forêt de l'Ospedale. You can even explore Corsica's rugged interiors by booking on to a 4x4 tour or a leisurely trek on horseback through the maquis covered shrubland.

The largest town in southern Corsica, Porto Vecchio, is a great place to visit. The medieval old town has lots to see, including historic churches and the 16th-century fortress which towers over the town. Visitors can book a guided tour of this fortress, known as the Citadel, where they can explore the vast vaulted hall and turrets with slits for arrows which have seen many battles take place. As well as the historic attractions, the town has lots of shops and restaurants as well as markets which pour into the streets.

The historic town of Bonifacio (40km) is another must-visit during your time in southern Corsica, surrounded by many more idyllic beaches perfect for swimming, long coastal walks and watersports.

A further popular day trip is to take a boat from Porto Vecchio or Bonifacio to the nearby Lavezzi Islands. You can decide between hiring a private boat and skipper or booking tickets for a guided boat tour around these stunning protected islands which often include lunch. On these boat trips you can see unspoilt beaches and traverse the rocky terrain before swimming in the dazzling water.
