Location & Local Information

Villa Bena Golf sits within the Marbella Golf Club Resort, an exclusive gated area offering exceptional living. Tucked away in the valleys of the Benahavis range, it's a unique place to live on the Costa del Sol. The surrounding pine and oak trees add to the tranquillity, while 24-hour security affords guests complete privacy. In addition, the resort boasts two prestigious, members-only golf courses plus a clubhouse where residents can meet for a quiet drink or a sociable meal. An equestrian centre also allows riders to discover the valleys on horseback.

The village of Benahavis lies 5 km from the resort and is a pretty village with cobbled streets, historic ruins and river walks. It's also known as the dining room of the Costa del Sol due to its abundance of Spanish restaurants and bars. Be sure to spend a few hours lingering over a meal here while soaking up the views of the Serrania de Ronda Mountains, or if you're feeling more adventurous, you can try your hand at canyoning through the gorges, waterfalls and plunge pools. Although the location is wonderfully tranquil, the Mediterranean shoreline is just a 15-minute drive away in Puerto Banus. The sandy beach here stretches for one kilometre, and you can enjoy swimming in the calm waters or charter a yacht and explore the coastline and its abundance of marine life. Alternatively, spend an afternoon browsing the designer shops, then head to the harbour for a bite to eat at one of the Michelin-starred restaurants. Enjoy fresh seafood while admiring the super yachts on the water, or simply relax with a drink and spot the rich and famous who frequent the area. Away from the seafront, there's an aquarium, multi-screen cinema and a five-floor Spanish department store, while on Saturdays, a colourful market is held in the bullring.

And when it comes to evening entertainment, Puerto Banus has something for everyone, with vibrant nightclubs, popular piano bars, and beach parties that attract a well-heeled crowd. Puerto Banus dates back to Roman times, and away from the glitz and glamour, archaeological remains can still be seen. Head to the heart of Puerto Banus, and you'll see the ruins of a Roman villa dating back to the late first or early second century.
