

Villa Barquillo

Region: Lanzarote Sleeps: 8

Overview

An extensive stylish property located in Puerto del Carmen, Villa Barquillo is ideal for those looking for a family holiday home with an added sense of luxury. As you approach the exterior of this property, you will be taken aback by the sheer size of the swimming pool that resides in the centre of the grounds. This space allows guests to cool off after a busy day of exploring the local sights, making it a key facility within the entire home. The exterior also hosts an outdoor terrace. As such, guests can indulge in a wealth of al fresco dining experiences as they take in the splendid views that surround them.

Inside, this property combines both traditional and modern furnishings. The living room showcases a plethora of striking white sofas and armchairs, building a deeply bright and airy space. Moving on to the dining area, this space makes good use of a range of wooden motifs and adds to a rustic theme. Guests are encouraged to enjoy a wealth of delicious meals whilst using a large light wooden table and matching chairs. The kitchen within this property is utterly marvellous and follows a similar theme to the previous room.

In this property you will find four beautiful bedrooms. The first and second bedrooms both include a spacious double bed, ensuring that guests can enjoy a restful night's sleep. The third bedroom contains a pair of single beds, making it ideal for two small children or for a couple who prefers to sleep apart. The master bedroom contains a double bed and also steps that guests can use to make their way down to the pool area - perfect for that morning swim!

Location & Local Information

Puerto del Carmen is a deeply inviting region that has a range of highly sought-after attractions for guests to discover. If you are an avid fan of contemporary European literature, a trip to Casa Museo Jose Saramago is a real treat. This vast attraction is based in the home Jose Saramago lived in for the last 18 years of his life, allowing guests to explore a variety of personal memorabilia and artefacts. Jose Saramago is best known for winning the Nobel Prize for Literature back in 1998 and is also recognised for his popular works Blindness and The Gospel According to Jesus Christ. This museum gives tourists a chance to explore this art form from a much more intimate perspective and encourages them to delve into the legacy of this very prolific author. Casa Museo Jose Saramago has located around 5 minutes away and welcomes guests Monday-Friday from 10 am till 1:30 pm.

As this region is encircled by sapphire blue water, guests are encouraged to embark on an immersive scuba diving excursion. Atlantis Diving Lanzarote is one of the most popular watersports establishments in the entire region and is based less than 5 minutes away from the centre of Puerto del Carmen. During a standard dive, guests will work alongside a trained instructor who will educate them on a collection of essential safety practices and provide them with an assortment of specialist equipment. Once they feel fully prepared, guests will then travel down in the crystal-clear ocean and will have the chance to marvel at an abundance of majestic sea creatures.

For those looking to discover the wonders of marine life without actually going underwater themselves, Submarine Safaris Lanzarote offers a range of exciting submarine tours. This establishment is located around 10 minutes away from the centre of Puerto Calero and showcases an iconic yellow submarine that can be seen for miles. During your extensive 1-hour tour, you will be able to see a wide array of beautiful creatures in their natural habitat. Thus, this is a perfect activity for those looking to learn more about the rich biodiversity that this region has to offer.
