Explore the rock tombs of Tlos, carved in the façade of the ancient city ruins, where you will find a necropolis, Roman baths, and an Ottoman Basilica. Head for Letoon to see the mosaic of the goddess Leto, as you wander through the Temple of Apollo. Whilst the honeycomb cliffs of Pinara hosts nine hundred rock tombs and a theatre in verdant setting. What we love

- Villa Adalet is just so stylish, from the super sharp exterior to the cool contemporary interior, a holiday here takes vacation villas to the next level
- We love the pool at Villa Adalet, starting with the incredible hues of blues tiles, that make the water look crystal clear, then the easy entry Roman steps, but most of all we loved the shallow inlet with the sun beds, where we could lie back, relax, and dip out toes in the cool water
- The villa is superbly located near the resort of Hisaronu, is within a short driving distance downhill to the holiday hot spot of fashionable Olu Deniz, and in the other direction, it's the same distance in the other direction to the cosmopolitan town of fabulous Fethiye
- All the six bedrooms are beautifully appointed, fabulously furnished, with smart televisions, air conditioning, Wi-Fi, ensuite bathrooms with walk-in showers, and mountain view balconies

What you should know...

- Please do not smoke in the villa, we want to keep it pristine for all of our guests
- The villa is in a strategic position, but the nearest beach is a ten minute drive away. It is a very steep downhill walk, but there is a good local public transport system to take you down and back
- We recommend hiring a car to make the most out of your holiday and see all the fabulous sights there is to see
- Villa Adalet is ideal for those with mobility issues, as the grounds and gardens are flat, and there is a spacious ground floor bedroom with an ensuite bathroom, and doors that open directly onto the terrace
