Spend a relaxed day amidst the turquoise blue waters and white pebble beach of Punta Rata. The main attraction, however, is its famous Brela Stone. A huge rock in the middle of the sea laden with pine trees, it's the very definition of postcard-worthy. Water sports enthusiasts are in for a treat. You can enjoy snorkelling, kayaking, pedal boating, jet skiing and parasailing. Settle down for a leisurely meal in the many shacks that line the area.

Dating back to 384 BC, witness ancient relics, ceramics and the ruins of a Roman shipwreck at Stari Grad Museum.
