

Denbigh Cottage

Region: North Wales   Sleeps: 6

Overview

Set amongst the rolling hills of North Wales with views of the Clwdyian Mountains this remote holiday home offers peace, calm and comfort for a group of six. Drive up a long, meandering private drive to your own oasis of calm, with the charming town of Denbigh just a few miles away.

Set within private, lush green grounds Denbigh Cottage welcomes guests through to a large open plan living dining kitchen area with high wood beams, feature stone walls and a contemporary oak conservatory, a fantastic spot to unwind with a novel surrounded by countryside peace and tranquillity. A comfortable lounge area can be sealed off with glass doors to allow the wood burner to provide the cosiest spot to snuggle down of an evening with a glass of red. In sunnier months the dining area has bi-fold doors that open up to bring the outside in as you enjoy dinner at the six-seater dining table.

A well-stocked kitchen has all you need to self-cater, from dishwasher to microwave and everything in between, plus a breakfast bar to enjoy your morning toast from. A ground floor WC holds a washing machine and walk-in shower for all your laundry needs, perfect for washing muddy feet after a day out exploring. Step through to the stunning scenic garden where you will be spoilt for choice from reclining in the bubbles of the cottage's hot tub, protected by a pagoda, to enjoying a BBQ on the comfy garden furniture. There is even a children's play area to keep little ones busy whilst you unwind.

The sleeping accommodation comprises of a ground floor double bedroom, and a further double and twin bedroom on the first floor along with a shared bathroom with over bath shower. All bedrooms include crisp white linens, bath towels and brass and iron bedframes, thoughtfully designed with style and comfort in mind.

Denbigh Cottage is perfect for any season with cosy fires, bubbling hot tubs and an expansive green space, a wonderful getaway for those looking to explore the great outdoors in peace and privacy.

Location & Local Information

Set within an area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Denbigh Cottage has enviable views of the surrounding mountains and valleys whilst being close by to a number of tourist spots and activities to keep everyone busy. Just a six-mile drive will take you to Denbigh where a trip to the scenic lake of Llyn Brenig is a must. Grab a bike and explore the beautiful surrounding area on trails suited to all abilities, or if you fancy your hand at fishing the reservoir offer pike fishing (from 1st November each year). Stop off for lunch at the Lakeside Café.

While in Denbigh a trip to the medieval fortress of Denbigh Castle offers a dramatic delve into history. With a drawbridge and triple-towered gatehouse this castle is perched atop the Vale of Clwyd and played a vital role in the wars that shaped Wales. There is an on-site exhibition, gift shop and light refreshments available to complete your trip.

Keen golfers will want to try a round at the local Denbigh Golf Club, with 18 holes available and a Pay and Play policy for non-members. Walk the lush green course and take in the scenic landscape along the way.

For a day at the beach take a drive to the tourist coastal town of Rhyl (17 miles drive) to build sandcastles on this blue flag sandy beach, whilst a little further afield you will find Wales's largest seaside resort, the Llandudno Beaches with a range of entertainment and leisure facilities available. The West Shore beach offers stunning sunsets and a more peaceful environment to the bustling North Shore beach and faces Conwy Bay that at low tide offers a great opportunity for kite-flyers and kite-surfers to hit the shore.

Explore the mountain landscape with a visit to the alpine-esque Betws-y-Coed, known as the gateway to Snowdonia. Adventurous types could take a guided tour to the spectacular underground slate mine where abseiling, climbing and zip-lining can be enjoyed. For a more relaxing day stroll amongst the independent craft shops or breathe in the fresh air with a walk through the Gwydr Forest surrounding the village.
