

Villa Darius

Region: Naxos    Sleeps: 10

Overview

Positioned at the end of a three-villa terrace in the Kastraki area of Naxos, Villa Darius offers a serene coastal escape with five bedrooms, a sleek open-plan living space, and a private outdoor area with a pool. Ideal for families or groups, it neighbours Villa Aithan, a two-bedroom residence perfect for extended parties or multigenerational stays. The villa is within easy reach of sandy beaches, including Mikri Vigla, Kastraki, and Parthena, with Naxos Town just seventeen kilometres away.

Recently renovated, the villa blends Cycladic charm with modern comfort, featuring built-in furniture throughout, beds, wardrobes, and bathrooms, styled in a bright, minimalist aesthetic. The ground floor includes a contemporary kitchen, a living and dining area opening onto the terrace, a bathroom, and two bedrooms, one with an ensuite. Upstairs, three further bedrooms, including a master suite, complete the layout, accommodating up to ten guests.

Each bedroom offers thoughtful touches, such as sea-view balconies and ample storage. The outdoor terrace is designed for relaxed island living, with a shaded dining area, kitchenette, and a pool surrounded by loungers. With panoramic views and direct access to the beach, Villa Darius offers a peaceful yet well-connected base from which to enjoy the natural beauty, historic villages, and renowned gastronomy of Naxos.

Location & Local Information

Villa Darius is situated in the serene Kastraki area of Naxos, offering scenic views of the sea just south of Mikri Vigla. The property's proximity to the beach allows for easy access, with a short stroll leading directly to the shoreline. The surrounding landscape features traditional Cycladic white villas, contributing to the area's tranquil ambience. Within minutes, guests can reach several idyllic beaches including Kastraki, Parthena, Mikri Vigla, Plaka, and Orkos, each offering its own charm and amenities. Kastraki Beach, in particular, stands out for its fine white sand, clear waters, and waterfront tavernas, providing a secluded and peaceful setting for visitors to enjoy.

Named after the observatory atop the cape, Mikri Vigla holds historical significance as a lookout point between Naxos and Paros, once serving to protect the island and monitor trade routes. The area's mythological associations with legendary pirates add to its allure. Mikri Vigla's southern bay attracts watersports enthusiasts, boasting a renowned kite surfing school and favourable wind conditions. Nearby beaches like Plaka and Aliko offer additional opportunities for aquatic activities, while natural attractions such as the cedar forest at Aliko contribute to the area's scenic beauty. Further exploration reveals family-friendly destinations like Agios Prokopios and Agios Anna, each offering its own charm and amenities amidst picturesque surroundings.

Naxos Island presents visitors with a wealth of natural beauty, historical significance, and culinary delights. Renowned for its panoramic landscapes and sandy beaches, the island also boasts a vibrant main town, charming mountain villages, and a rich cultural heritage. From the mythological connections to its thriving dining scene, Naxos offers a multifaceted experience for travellers. Whether indulging in local delicacies, exploring ancient sites, or enjoying leisurely boat trips to secluded beaches, visitors are sure to find something to captivate their senses on this enchanting island.

What we love

- The villa is beautifully finished with plenty of traditional, built-in, whitewashed Cycladic elements. Its minimalist, bright and cheery look is very stylish
- The location is just brilliant with gorgeous sea views and a very short stroll to the beach
- The lower and upper terraces are perfect spots for watching the mesmerising sunrises and sunsets, relaxing with your holiday books and dining alfresco. They come with built-in sofas and comfy cushions and are blissfully relaxing

What you should know...

- This villa sits at the end of a three-villa terrace with our Villa Aithan (<https://www.oliverstravels.com/greece/naxos/villa-aithan/>) next door. If you don't quite have enough room or are bringing the grandparents along who might want a little privacy, then you could always book the smaller two-bedroom villa
- Two of the bedrooms are located on the ground floor, ideal for guests with any mobility issues
- Make sure you try the local Kitron liqueur. It is absolutely delicious and a great way to end a meal!
