Location & Local Information

Villa Polca is situated just a stone's throw away from the bustling centre of Puerto del Carmen, making it easier than ever for guests to discover the divine nuances of this attractive region. This region is often celebrated for its flawless collection of native beaches, such as the mesmerising Playa Chica. Complete with an abundance of soft golden sand and wide stretches of sapphire blue water; this is a perfect location to visit if you are eager to let your everyday worries melt away and truly reconnect with the awe-inspiring sights and smells that surround you. An additional element of this beach is the looming rock structures that surround the nearby shores, which act as an essential source of shade from the warming sun. Playa Chica is based just over 5 minutes away from the villa.

If you are looking to complete a once-in-a-lifetime underwater adventure, a scuba diving excursion is a must-do activity. Atlantis Diving Lanzarote is a prized establishment that offers a grandiose selection of courses and can be found around 5 minutes away from Villa Polca. As soon as you arrive, you will be paired with an expert diving instructor who will provide you with a detailed safety briefing and an assortment of state-of-the-art equipment. Once you submerge yourself into the refreshingly cool water, you will have the chance to observe a plethora of majestic sea creatures from an entirely new perspective, giving guests an experience that they will never forget.

Rancho Texas is one of the most popular tourist attractions within this area and is located just a few minutes away from the villa. Here, you will have the opportunity to enjoy a selection of live animal shows featuring birds of prey and sea lions. As a result, this is a perfect attraction to visit if you wish to learn more about the transformative biodiversity found throughout this enriching region. This park is also recognised for its adorable wild west theme, which contains staff outfits and themed dance parties. Thus, guests are encouraged to soak up the vivacious atmosphere and party the night away in this iconic landmark.
