Location & Local Information

Calheta offers tourists a plethora of landmarks to discover, ensuring that they can enjoy a very enriching experience. As Fontes do Horacio is one of the most iconic restaurants in the entire region, making it an unmissable location for avid foodies. Here, guests can indulge in a variety of traditional Portuguese dishes, giving them a true taste of this bustling region. There is an assortment of menu options available such as rich pork ribs and a zesty seafood platter served with a portion of baby new potatoes. As such, this is a unique attraction to visit if you are looking to celebrate a special occasion during your time on holiday. As Fontes do Horacio is based just a stone's throw away from the centre of the region and welcomes guests Tuesday-Sunday from 10:30 am to 10 pm.

The Mudas Contemporary Art Museum is a completely immersive landmark and works to highlight the immense talent of a wealth of local creatives. This museum was founded by Duarte de Brito and D. Joana Cabral, who hope to showcase the nuances of the contemporary art scene and note some of the most prolific artists throughout the 20th century. Guests must explore this institution in full detail, discovering more about how this legacy-defining museum is responsible for inspiring an entire generation of famous artists. The Mudas Contemporary Art Museum is situated just over 5 minutes away from the centre of Calheta and is open Tuesday-Sunday from 10 am till 7 pm.

If you are looking to explore a detailed museum with a twist, a trip to The Sugar Cane Mill and Museum is a real treat. During their time at this fascinating establishment, guests have the chance to explore a plethora of expert machinery and exhibitions. In turn, this is a great way to uncover the intricacies of this fundamental practice. It should also be noted that these exhibitions have been translated into English, French, and Portuguese, making them suitable for foreign tourists. For those travelling to this region in December, you have the chance to see the museum's ornate and traditional Nativity scene. Thus, this is a fantastic way to truly get into the Christmas spirit. The Sugar Cane Mill and Museum is located just over 15 minutes away.
