Location & Local Information

Apartment Ariana boasts a central setting in one of Venice's most vibrant quarters, just a short walk from wide-open green spaces, lively cafés, well-stocked supermarkets and renowned historical landmarks. Guests are within easy reach of St Mark's Square, home to the magnificent basilica adorned with intricate mosaics and the famed bronze (actually copper) horses. A visit here is a must, arriving early is advised to beat the queues.

From the nearby Campanile San Marco, enjoy sweeping views over the Doge's Palace and Venetian Lagoon via a lift-accessed platform. For a quintessential Venetian experience, stop by one of the elegant piazza cafés for coffee and pastries accompanied by live music. Caffè Florian, dating back to 1720, offers a unique glimpse into the city's rich café culture.
