Location & Local Information

Apartment Lucia is ideally placed for exploring Venice's rich cultural scene, just moments from the antique market at Campo San Maurizio. Held five weekends a year since 1970, this vibrant market attracts collectors from across Italy with its eclectic mix of books, vintage postcards, jewellery, chandeliers and more. The apartment's central setting makes it easy to explore the city's most celebrated landmarks, including museums, galleries and opera houses.

St. Mark's Square, just a short stroll away, is a must-visit, home to the iconic basilica adorned with golden mosaics and the famous bronze (actually copper) horses. For sweeping views of Venice, head up the Campanile San Marco via elevator to admire the lagoon, basilica and Doge's Palace below. Afterwards, take a break at one of the piazza's historic cafés. Caffe Florian, dating back to 1720, offers a truly memorable setting to savour coffee and pastries accompanied by live music, all steeped in centuries of Venetian history.
