Apartment Angelina

Region: Veneto Sleeps: 7

Overview

Set across two stylish storeys, Apartment Angelina offers three elegant double bedrooms, a south-facing furnished terrace, and captivating views over Campo San Maurizio and the bell tower of Santo Stefano. The interior pairs timbered ceilings and warm wooden floors with a refined palette of seagrass, clay, and artichoke tones. A spacious living area with a deep corner sofa and tall windows invites guests to unwind in comfort.

The open-plan kitchen and dining area features integrated appliances, a table for eight, and bar seating for casual gatherings. Each bedroom includes an ensuite bathroom, two with walk-in showers, one with a bathtub and shower, while the third bedroom, set on the upper floor, offers a peaceful retreat with dual-aspect windows. The second bedroom opens directly onto the terrace, an ideal spot for relaxed mornings overlooking the rooftops of Venice.

Location & Local Information

Ideally placed near Venice's winding canals and open piazzas, Apartment Angelina offers effortless access to the charming cafés of Santo Stefano and the historic heart of St. Mark's Square. Within easy walking distance, guests can admire St. Mark's Basilica, renowned for its glittering mosaics and the iconic bronze horses, and explore its richly detailed interior on a free tour (early arrival is advised to avoid queues).

For a more local experience, the Campo San Maurizio antique market brings vintage treasures to life across selected weekends, with everything from rare books to intricate jewellery. The area also hosts excellent museums, opera houses and galleries. For a true taste of Venice, relax at one of the elegant cafés dotted around the square. Caffe Florian, established in 1720, offers a memorable moment of refinement overlooking the square's thousand-year-old basilica. Just steps away, the ornate St. Mark's Clocktower invites deeper exploration through a guided tour of its remarkable interior.
