Nestled at the mouth of the River Cetina, it offers a unique blend of beaches, cultural heritage, and high-energy activities such as canyoning, rafting, canoeing, and ziplining across the canyon.

The town's 13th-century Mirabella and 15th-century Starigrad fortresses reward climbers with sweeping views of the coastline, while the nearby statue of Croatian folk heroine Mila Gojsalič, located five kilometres from the centre, offers another stunning vantage point. Beach lovers will appreciate Omiš's variety of options, from the long stretch of sandy Velika Plaza to the pebbled coves of Brzet and Slavinj.
