

Villa Karlo

Region: Sibenik Sleeps: 22

Overview

Situated on Murter Island, west of Vodice and Šibenik, Villa Karlo boasts 11 bedrooms accommodating up to 22 guests, making it perfect for special occasions or large family gatherings. Spread over two floors, the villa offers three apartments on the first floor, each with two bedrooms. The second floor features three more apartments, two with two bedrooms and one with one bedroom, all providing stunning views of the Adriatic Sea and the local surroundings.

A mere 300 meters from the beach, Villa Karlo features ample outdoor space with Mediterranean gardens, inviting terraces equipped with seating and sun loungers, and a spacious pool complemented by an outdoor hot tub. The covered konoba-style dining area with a large brick barbecue offers an atmospheric setting for shared meals and drinks at sunset. Inside, each apartment is well-appointed and spacious, boasting a cute balcony terrace, a fully equipped kitchen, TV lounges, free Wi-Fi, and air conditioning, ensuring a comfortable stay for guests. Most bedrooms feature double beds, some offering queen-size or twin beds, and each apartment has a bathroom with a shower.

Location & Local Information

Murter Island, with its charming population of around 5,000, offers idyllic beaches, traditional eateries, and a serene backdrop for outdoor pursuits. Although the island lacks large shopping centres or bustling nightlife, guests can easily access the mainland via the road bridge for additional amenities and entertainment options in nearby Vodice and Šibenik, located approximately 25 and 35 minutes away, respectively, offering more beaches, historical landmarks, and family-friendly attractions to explore.

Part of the Šibenik Archipelago, Murter serves as a base for exploring the Kornati Islands and the city of Šibenik itself. With pretty beaches and vibrant dining scenes in settlements like Tisno, Murter offers cultural events like summer music festivals. Nearby Šibenik boasts historic sights such as St. James' Cathedral and a quartet of forts, along with summer entertainment like open-air theatres and cinemas. The city also hosts the annual International Children's Festival. Visitors can savour high-quality Adriatic cuisine and local wines, with opportunities for wine tasting at Baraka Winery. Further north, Krka National Park beckons with its waterfalls, hiking trails, and guided tours showcasing natural wonders like Visovac Island and the Roški Slap waterfall.

What we love

- This villa's superb pool terrace is among the most characterful you'll find – rustic, spacious and secluded, you are sure to love your time here.
- A gorgeous hot tub provides the perfect place to unwind after a day's exploring, while the traditional konoba tavern creates the perfect mood for late night drinks.
- Events are permitted at this property, so it's perfect for a special occasion – and with its huge capacity everyone can be invited.
