Location & Local Information

Can Felipe is based just over 5 minutes away from the riveting region of Pollensa, a location that is often commended for its striking array of thought-provoking tourist attractions. One of the area's most noticeable attractions is Pollensa Market, which boasts over 300 stalls. Each stall is hosted by an amicable vendor, showcasing a premium selection of handmade goods such as artisan bags, clothes, and jewellery. Thus, this is a fantastic place to visit if you are looking to pick up a collection of unique souvenirs to show off back home. Alongside these goods, the market also sells a variety of fresh fruit and vegetables, giving guests a chance to pick up some nuanced ingredients to use in their cooking back at Can Felipe. The Pollensa Market can be found just 5 minutes away from the villa and welcomes guests Sunday from 8 am to 1:30 pm.

Formentor Lighthouse is a truly looming and iconic monument that is situated around 40 minutes away from Can Felipe. This vast landmark was first crafted in 1863 as an intuitive way to guide small fishing boats away from the jagged rocks found at the base of the shore and towards a sense of safety. Throughout its long history, the lighthouse has also become a keen figure in European literature, with the likes of Blas de Otero and Gerardo Diego praising its beauty. As such, guests are encouraged to take the short drive toward the peak and bask in an assortment of mind-blowing panoramic views as they travel through.

If you are looking to discover more about the rich biodiversity seen throughout this impeccable region, a trip to the Joan March Gardens is an ideal way to do so. This landmark was first established in the late 1980s as a keen way to celebrate the life and works of the eldest son of the March family. This family is well recognised within financial circles as they help to push this small town into a prosperous economic boom. During their time here, guests will be inundated with beautiful horticulture, such as slim cypress trees, which are often depicted on the town's traditional coat of arms. The Joan March Gardens are located just under 10 minutes away from the villa.
