

Villa Spigola

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 6

Overview

Sleeping up to six guests, Villa Spigola is a beautifully restored Puglian farmhouse, combining modern amenities with rustic charm. Divided into two separate apartments, it's perfect for two couples or a family traveling with grandparents. Both units feature neutral tones, highlighting original details like vaulted stone ceilings.

The first apartment is a spacious, open-plan area with a double sofa bed, TV, fireplace, well-equipped kitchen, and dining space. A partition separates the sleeping area, which connects to a bathroom with a bath and freestanding shower. This unit can accommodate four guests. The second apartment, accessible via the garden, sleeps two in a queen-sized bed and includes a small kitchen, dining area, and bathroom.

The garden is ideal for group gatherings, featuring a private pool, sun loungers, dining tables, outdoor sofas, and a summer kitchen with a barbecue, bar, and wood-burning oven.

For activities, enjoy walking and cycling trails, horseback rides, or wine tours within 10 km. The nearest beach is 14 km away, with the pristine Torre Guaceto Nature Reserve 20 km further. Local towns like San Michele Salentino (4.5 km) and Ostuni (10 km) offer shopping and dining, while iconic Trulli towns like Alberobello are 44 km away.
