Overview

Amidst the untamed beauty of Formentera, Finca Arinam offers a sanctuary of rustic charm and effortless comfort. Encircled by towering pine trees, this traditional finca invites families to slow down, reconnect, and embrace the island's tranquil rhythm. Sun-dappled terraces provide a seamless blend of shade and sunshine, offering the perfect setting to unwind with a chilled glass of wine while taking in the sweeping natural landscape.

Stepping inside, the villa exudes warmth and authenticity, with its exposed wooden beams, textured stone walls, and earthy tones creating an atmosphere of understated elegance. The living area is a haven of relaxation, where generous seating invites long, unhurried conversations beneath the characterful ceiling beams. In the dining area, a solid wood table and matching chairs set the stage for intimate family meals, while the charming kitchen—fitted with distressed wooden cabinetry and polished granite surfaces—encourages guests to prepare and share delicious, home-cooked dishes.

Each of the three bedrooms embraces a soothing aesthetic, designed for restful nights after sun-soaked island adventures. The principal suite features a sumptuous double bed, dressed in soft, inviting linens, while the remaining two bedrooms offer twin beds, ideal for children or friends traveling together. Thoughtfully curated to ensure both comfort and serenity, these spaces promise an undisturbed night's sleep beneath the whispering pine trees.

With its blend of natural beauty and homely appeal, Finca Arinam is a place where time slows, bonds deepen, and every moment is savored.

Location & Local Information

Finca Arinam puts you just 15 minutes from Formentera, an island renowned for its stunning scenery and cutting-edge food scene. One must-try local delicacy is Piex Sec de Formentera – dried skate fish cured in the sun on native Sabina trees. This dish is a true taste of the island’s culinary heritage, perfect for those looking to explore bold new flavors.

La Savina is the island’s first port of call, making it a buzzing hub for visitors. This charming village is known for its vibrant marina, where luxury yachts bob alongside traditional fishing boats. Stroll through its artisan shops, soak up the laid-back atmosphere, and enjoy a waterfront meal as the sun glistens off the sapphire-blue sea. Just over 15 minutes from Finca Arinam, it’s a must-visit spot.

For an unforgettable underwater experience, dive into the Don Pedro Wreck. This 140-metre-long cargo ship lies at the bottom of the seabed, cloaked in coral and jagged rock. Despite its years beneath the waves, much of its original structure remains intact, making it a dream for scuba divers. Vellmari, a renowned local diving centre just 15 minutes away, provides expert-led tours, complete with all the gear and a full safety briefing. If you’re up for a thrilling dive with a side of maritime history, this is it.
