

Villa Manto

Region: Mykonos Sleeps: 14

Overview

Villa Manto offers a picturesque retreat overlooking the Aegean Sea on the northwest coast of Mykonos. This elegant one-story villa is set on a 2,000-square-meter property, featuring a main house with three double bedrooms and four independent guesthouses. Designed to accommodate up to 14 guests, it is well-suited for family gatherings or group vacations.

A stone-tiled terrace surrounds the villa, offering panoramic sea views, a private infinity freshwater swimming pool, landscaped gardens, and a private football pitch. Additional amenities include parking for up to four cars, air-conditioning, Wi-Fi, and an indoor and outdoor surround-sound system. Built in a traditional Cycladic architectural style, the villa features smooth whitewashed walls, domed and beamed ceilings, and a carefully curated interior combining modern furnishings, unique artwork, and a neutral colour palette of crisp whites and natural earth tones.

The 270-square-meter main house includes multiple seating areas, one with an all-white sofa and an open fireplace, and another with a large L-shaped sofa beneath a beamed ceiling, complemented by a satellite television. A raised dining area provides a sophisticated meal setting, while the spacious kitchen has modern appliances. Guests may also opt for a private chef service arranged by the concierge team. The main house contains three ensuite double bedrooms, including a master bedroom with direct pool access, a second ensuite bedroom with a double bed and an attic-level sleeping area, and a third ensuite double bedroom. A guest cloakroom completes the main house's amenities.

The guesthouses provide additional accommodation. The first and second guesthouses each feature a double bedroom with an ensuite shower room and access to an outdoor seating area. The third guesthouse offers a double bedroom, an ensuite shower room, and a small kitchenette that opens onto the pool terrace and garden. The fourth guesthouse includes twin beds that can be converted into a double, along with a television and ensuite shower room.

The outdoor space is designed to enhance relaxation and leisure. The T-shaped, 80-square-meter infinity pool is surrounded by sun loungers and hammocks, while a shaded pergola provides a comfortable seating area. Guests can enjoy a game on the private football pitch, unwind at the bar, or gather for alfresco dining under the stars, with meals prepared on the outdoor barbecue. The combination of breathtaking sea views, thoughtful amenities, and spacious accommodations makes Villa Manto an inviting destination for a memorable stay in Mykonos.

Location & Local Information

Villa Manto is located on the hillside just north of the village of Tourlos, on the jet-set Cycladic island of Mykonos, in the heart of the Aegean Sea. The exclusive island of Mykonos measures only ten kilometres long by fifteen kilometres wide, so wherever you want to go it's only a short drive away. The villa is only four kilometres from Mykonos Airport, which is served by both local and international flight operators. If you are island hopping, then nearby Naxos and Syros also have their own airports.

The coastal village of Tourlos is on the North West side of the island, and is fabulously cosmopolitan, with celebrity-spotting seafront bars and traditional tavernas, and local mini-marts to cater for all your holiday catering. The coastline is populated with many beautiful golden sandy beaches, the nearest one is the family-friendly favourite of Agios Stephanos is a six-hundred-metre walk away. Nearby the organised Tourlos beach has sun loungers and shady parasols, or take it up a notch and party, party, party all day long on the hedonistic Paradise Beach, with its crystal clear waters, restaurants, bars, and clubs with resident DJs. During daylight seek solace in one of the eight hundred churches that populate the island, most notably Paraportiani, which is a unique construction combining four styles of architecture, or nearby the church of St George Spilinnos, uniquely built into the cavity of the rocks.

Take a visit to Mykonos old town, known locally as Chora, only three kilometres from the villa. Here you can wander the maze of streets with the colourful Cycladic houses strewn with beautiful bougainvillea, and do some serious designer shopping in one of the many luxury label boutiques. Take a seat at a seafront restaurant and enjoy a dish of freshly caught seafood, whilst sipping ouzo, and watching the beautiful people pass by. Find out the island's history and culture at the Archaeological Museum, the Folk Museum, and the Maritime Museum, and go out slightly of town to Lena's House to discover how the islanders lived. Take a walk up to the landmark windmills, or as they are known locally, Kato Mili, where once the wheat was ground to make bread, and is now a mini museum and residencies. Walk along the waterfront to Little Venice, where the original and colourful merchant houses overhang the sea, and is now home to cafes, bars, restaurants, and galleries, best enjoyed as the sun sets with a retsina or two. Admire the Armenistis lighthouse, still fully functioning and an essential asset of Mykonos' maritime history.

No visit to Mykonos is complete without a day at sea, join a catamaran jolly and snorkel in the sea, or charter your own yacht complete with a captain, and discover secret coves and hidden bays and beaches. For the romantics, nothing beats a sunset cruise, cocktail in hand as the sun sets over the horizon. Hop aboard a ferry for a day trip to the adjacent island of Tinos, visit the landmark Renaissance-style Church of Panagia Evangelistria, tilt at windmills, visit the fifty villages, walk the ancient fortifications, and coo at the famous dovecotes. Further afield the uninhabited island of Delos is well worth a visit, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, home to the birthplace of Zeus and Leto, go with a group or arrange your own private tour. And of course, you can always island hop from the new port of Mykonos, where the Aegean Sea is your oyster.

What we love

- We love everything about Villa Manto, but we especially love that the rooms and guest rooms are self-contained, so that if you are travelling as a group or large family, everyone gets their own space and privacy
- We love the sea view terrace, and freshwater swimming pool, the vista is fantastic and the pool is perfect for a morning swim, an afternoon cool down, and a midnight dip
- The interiors at Villa Manto are exquisite, ultra cool and uber cool
- Villa Manto is set in its own stone walled grounds, giving it a sense of peace and tranquillity, yet a beautiful beach is nearby, and a bustling town but a short drive away

What you should know...

- Concierge and guest services are available to arrange almost anything for you to make your stay even more memorable
- There is only one twin room, which is the fourth guesthouse, and that can be converted to a double by arrangement
- It's so lovely you may never want to leave!
