Location & Local Information

Villa Halara enjoys a prime location close to beautiful beaches and just minutes from the charming village of Ano Mero. Characterised by whitewashed buildings accented with vivid hues, this traditional village offers cosy cafés, inviting tavernas, and the historic Panagia Tourlaina and Paleokastro Monasteries. Its winding alleyways are lined with boutiques, jewellers, and local shops, ideal for leisurely evening strolls.

Mykonos boasts over twenty-five beaches, ranging from sweeping sandy shores to tucked-away coves with crystal-clear waters. Two of the finest are just moments from Villa Halara. Kalafatis Beach is popular with families and water sports enthusiasts, offering both a windsurfing and water sports centre. Nearby Kalo Livadi Beach, quieter and ideal for kayaking, is well-suited to children.

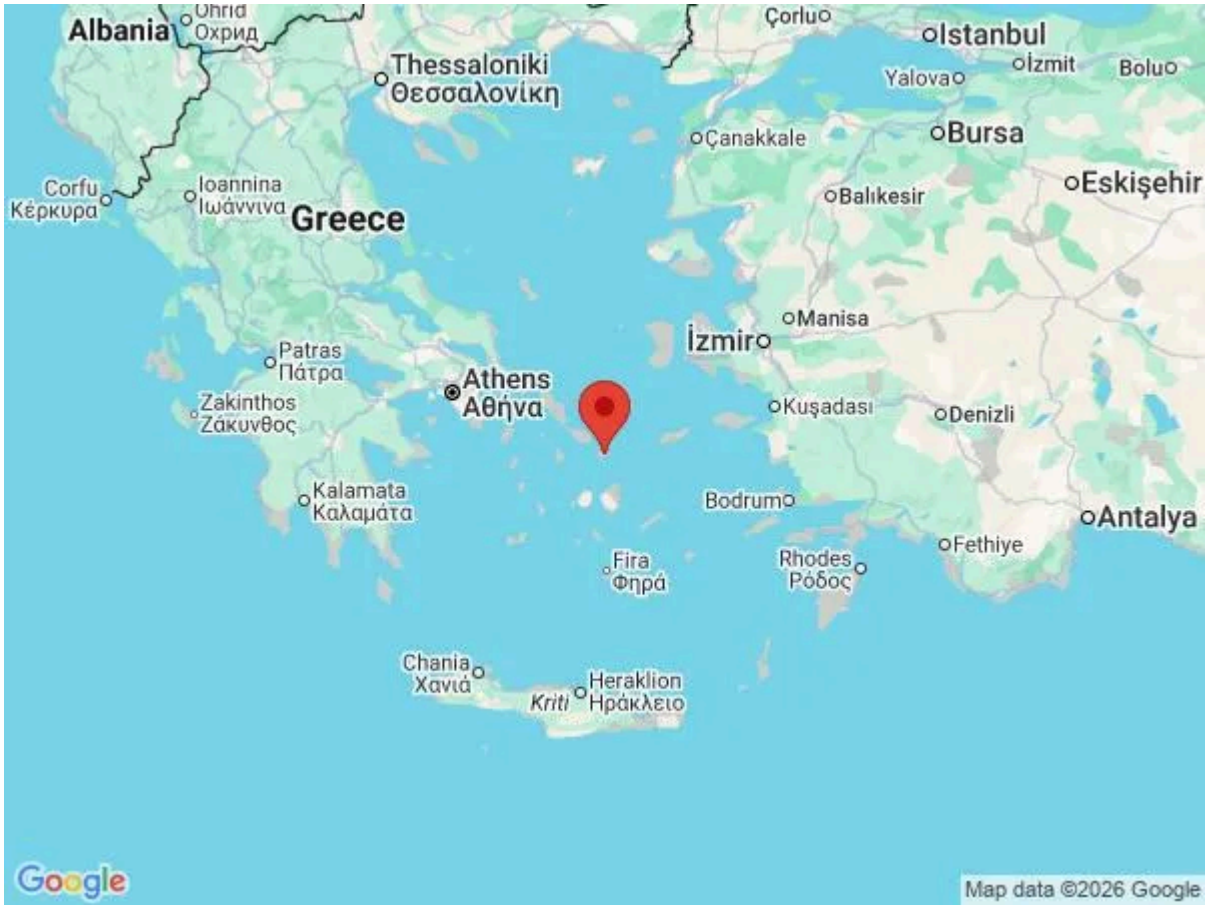

For nightlife, Paradise Beach and Super Paradise Beach are renowned for their vibrant beach bars and international DJs. Super Paradise Beach Club offers a spirited mix of Mykonian aesthetics, gourmet dining, lively music, and a bohemian-chic atmosphere.

Mykonos Town (Hora), located eleven kilometres away, enchants with its maze of narrow streets, historic churches, upscale boutiques, and eclectic art galleries. Its bougainvillaea-draped lanes and whitewashed buildings provide a postcard-perfect backdrop for shopping and dining.

Cultural highlights include the Mykonos Antanaclasis Festival and the Agia Paraskevi Festival in July. Little Venice, with its candy-coloured buildings perched above the waves, is a beloved spot for sundowners, waterfront dining, and striking views.
