

Villa Halara

Region: Mykonos Sleeps: 12

Overview

Mostly in white and with the charm of gorgeous Mykonian architecture, Villa Halara is the perfect abode for a spot of switch-off. With six bedrooms, gorgeous calm living spaces and an idyllic terrace with sensational sea views, this dreamy property is a capsule of contemporary cool. Space, stunning views, sun-drenched terraces and lux living all come in lavish abundance. Twelve lucky guests can easily relax, unwind and rejuvenate.

Villa Halara is drenched in the warm Aegean sun and boasts an enviable, prestigious location, right at the rim of a cliffside overlooking the entire Kalafatis Bay and the turquoise sea. It is nestled within one kilometre of the stunning Kalafatis and Kalo Livadi beaches on the south coast of the wonderful island of Mykonos. Just minutes away is the charming village of Ano Mera, the home of the beautifully restored 16th-century Panagia Tourliani Monastery and a place where you will instantly relax and get a feel for the real Mykonos. With a panorama of meticulous, stunning beaches, serene architecture and blissful tranquillity, Villa Halara is perfect for an extended family holiday with your favourite friends.

With a cool vibe, the villa perfectly blends the traditional Cycladic styling with exotic details, a Mexican-like ambience with stone-built fences and large cacti, contemporary flair and minimalism. It is a villa that makes you want to embrace the calm, grab your holiday book and head to a sun lounger where you will be mesmerised by the sea views. Villa Halara is comprised of a main three-story house and a separate guest house. With its dazzling white interiors, made all the more bright by the unique Mykonian sparkle of sunlight flooding the rooms, you will notice the aura of purity and freedom. The interiors are decorated with minimal, contemporary styling along with smart antique details. It is chic, effortlessly stylish and superbly comfortable.

The ground floor is home to a country-chic kitchen with excellent appliances and modern cabinetry. A few steps up, there is a spacious living room with cream sofas perfectly positioned to enjoy the Aegean seascapes through the large picture windows and the smart television with Netflix. Modern paintings of the sea decorate the walls and add a seaside theme and bright colour splashes. Around the corner, painted vintage furnishings make for a heavenly spot for a meal. You will also find a delightful double bedroom and a twin bedroom, both with ensuite bathrooms. The pool level of the villa is home to the rest of the bedrooms aside from the one in the guest house. The master bedroom enjoys a fabulous four-poster bed with romantic voile drapes and an ensuite bathroom, a pretty double enjoys an ensuite shower room and access to the terrace and a children's bedroom comes with bunk beds and a shower room. The final haven is located in the separate guest house, a spacious double with an ensuite bathroom that offers privacy and seclusion to a couple.

Villa Halara's pool terrace with its dreamy sea views will take your breath away. It boasts stunning 360-degree views and the large swimming pool is surrounded by luxury loungers and comfy armchairs, idyllic spots to relax, rejoice and count your blessings. There are numerous pergola-shaded alfresco lounge areas with stone built-in sofas and fabulous outdoor furniture. There is a gorgeous alfresco dining area with a barbecue where your barbecue masters can prepare a delicious feast. You will not want to leave this dreamy villa.

Location & Local Information

Villa Halara enjoys a wonderful position close to magical beaches and just minutes from the charming, idyllic village of Ano Mero. With its white walls splashed with vivid colours, its cosy cafes, charming restaurants and centuries-old Panagia Turlaina and Paleokastro Monasteries, Ano Mero is delightful. The narrow, winding alleyways are filled with a variety of shops, boutiques and jewellers. You will love spending some of your evenings here.

Whether you are looking for a massive stretch of sugar-white sand or a tiny, secluded cove lapped by turquoise waters, Mykonos has a beach to suit you. There are twenty-five stunners in all and two special beaches are on the doorstep of Villa Halara. Kalafatis Beach is very popular with families and those who enjoy watersports. There is a windsurf centre as well as a watersports centre. Kalo Livadi Beach is also very close to the villa and is popular with children wanting to kayak. It is quieter than some of the beaches. Paradise Beach and Super Paradise Beach are the main party beaches with buzzing beach bars and nightly famous DJs at the clubs. If you are looking for a lively night out you can head to the beach club at Super Paradise Beach which welcomes guests to a world of passion, taste and fun. They consider themselves to be the soul of Mykonos island with an energy that has been radiating for over fifty years. You will step into a world of effortless comfort, where Mykonian aesthetics offer bohemian chill-out and guests enjoy upbeat music and dance. Guests are pampered with mouth-watering food options, sensational wines and creative cocktails not to mention resident DJs and vibrant dance floors.

Mykonos Town is 11km away. Also known as Hora, the town is a maze of narrow lanes, lined with old picturesque churches, restaurants serving delicious Greek and cosmopolitan cuisine, label-laden boutiques and quirky art galleries. Colourful bougainvillaea decorates the lanes and contrasts vividly with the whitewashed buildings. Hora is fantastic for shopping for souvenirs to designer goods. The dining scene rivals any Greek island.

The Mykonos Antanaklasis Festival takes place at the open-air theatre and the Grypario Cultural Centre, just south of Mykonos Town. It showcases the moods of different artists and musical styles including classical, jazz and Greek numbers alongside acclaimed soloists and ensembles. The Agia Paraskevi Festival in July transforms Mykonos Town with parties and dancing and a procession to honour Saint Agia Paraskevi. A tightrope of crazy paving is all that separates the candy-coloured buildings from the breaking waves in the colourful Little Venice. It's a firm favourite with its well-heeled waterfront bars, cafes, tavernas and brilliant sunsets.
