Overview

Stay in contemporary charm at this Dordogne family villa with a heated swimming pool close to the heart of one of France's most exquisite towns, Sarlat-la-Canéda.

Maison Cabu is a modern holiday home yet it has been designed to look like a traditional Périgord house. It's pretty garden offers you the opportunity to sunbathe by the heated swimming pool, read a book by the lawn and feast al-fresco making the most of the summer kitchen. It feels private and enclosed with the aroma of rosemary and lavender alongside splashes of summer colour.

Sleeping up to six guests, the open-plan lounge and kitchen-diner gives the feeling of space and light whilst sliding doors lead straight out to the main terrace and garden. Two ground floor bedrooms await, as does a double in the spacious tower-style upper level.

Only 4.5km away is Sarlat-la-Canéda, one of the country's most loved towns with its beautiful historic architecture, medieval lanes, inviting shops, gastronomic restaurants and bustling markets. Slightly further afield, within a 15-minute drive, you could be pottering around other idyllic destinations such as Domme, La Roque-Gageac and Beynac-et-Cazenac, all three classified as 'Plus Beaux Villages' by the banks of the Dordogne River.

Hire bikes and cycle along the voie verte that passes close to the house or enjoy long walks and local hiking trails. To sail along the Dordogne, ride on a traditional Gabarre boat or hire canoes and kayaks; you could even take a hot air balloon ride to admire the impressive landscapes of this wonderful part of south-western France.
