Location & Local Information

The island of Providenciales, known locally as Provo, is situated at the heart of the Turks and Caicos archipelago within the tropical waters of the Atlantic Ocean. With sun-soaked beaches, majestic national parks, friendly local people and exclusive resorts, the island is the perfect place to enjoy a Caribbean escape like no other. The exceptional Sands at Grace Bay resort provides direct access to the pristine white shores of Grace Bay Beach, a world-famous beach considered by many to be the jewel of the Turks and Caicos Islands. With three and a half miles of powdery sand and crystal-clear waters, water sports enthusiasts will be amazed by the adventures at Grace Bay, from paddle boarding and discovering secluded inlets to parasailing with a bird's eye view of the expansive barrier reef.

A private cruise is a perfect way to explore the Turks and Caicos, while spotting majestic humpback whales or delightful Atlantic bottlenose dolphins will be sure to make a boat tour of Grace Bay even more magical. For something a little different, certain local tour providers also offer sunset cruises to observe the monthly mating ritual of marine glow worms in the shallow waters of the Caicos Banks along the island's southwest coastline. This enchanting experience gives visitors to Providenciales the opportunity to witness a stunning natural phenomenon that occurs only in this part of the Caribbean, with the sea's surface coming to life with vibrant green flashes of light produced by millions of tiny glow worms.

A day trip to the fascinating Conch Bar Caves on the island of Middle Caicos makes for an exciting day out, providing a glimpse into the unique natural and cultural history of the Turks and Caicos Islands. Underground lakes are hidden amongst the stalactites and stalagmites of this network of limestone caves, which were used as shelters and sacred sanctuaries by the native Lucayan people. As well as an atmospheric guided tour of the Conch Bar Caves by torchlight, visitors to Middle Caicos can also enjoy trekking the island's Crossing Place Trail, a challenging coastal trail that takes in the breathtaking sights of Mudjin

Harbour and Bambarra Beach. Don't forget to bring plenty of water to tour the trail!

Golf enthusiasts will enjoy playing a round or two on one of the best eighteen-hole courses in the Caribbean, five minutes from the Sands at Grace Bay. At the Royal Turks and Caicos Golf Club, the scenic waterways and picturesque limestone surroundings of the course are sure to bring out the very best in your game! Later, indulge in light retail therapy at the clubhouse before a well-earned cocktail on Grace Bay Beach.

Visitors to the Turks and Caicos Islands will be spellbound by the laidback way of life on Providenciales. After another day spent soaking up the island's wonders, return to the Sands at Grace Bay for a dip in the ocean or a fabulous swimming pool before enjoying a delicious dinner of fresh seafood or filet mignon and drinks under the stars at Hemingway's Restaurant.
