

Broughton Wing

Region: The North East Sleeps: 6

Overview

Broughton Wing is a grand three-bedroom apartment within historic Broughton Hall. Set within a Grade I listed estate, this private wing boasts lavish period features, opulent décor, an elegant 19th-century living room with expansive views, a striking kitchen-dining room, and meticulously kept ensuite bedrooms. Perfect for family escapes, gatherings of friends, or corporate retreats, it offers a serene stay infused with history.

The estate's 3,000 acres offer endless activities—from woodland trails, parklands, and heather moorland to a luxury wellness center. Guests can indulge in unique experiences like forest walks, wild swimming, guided foraging, and fireside dining under the treetop canopy. Wellness offerings include a state-of-the-art retreat center with a pool suite, organic sauna, and tailored therapies. Nearby Skipton, gateway to the Yorkshire Dales, charms with its market, medieval castle, boutiques, and traditional pubs. Further afield, visitors can explore Harrogate, York, and the Lake District. With stunning landscapes, historic charm, and endless entertainment, Broughton Wing offers a luxurious and restorative stay within one of England's finest estates.

Location & Local Information

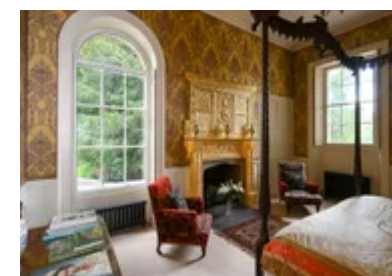

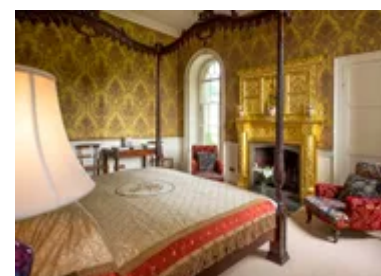

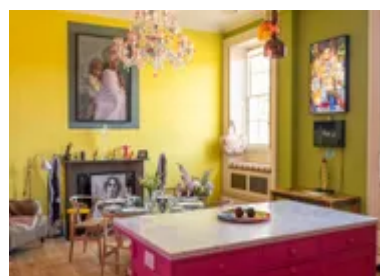

Broughton Wing is set within a sprawling 3,000-acre estate near Skipton, a charming market town known as the gateway to the Yorkshire Dales. Skipton boasts Skipton Castle, scenic canal walks, and a vibrant High Street. Just a short drive away, Bolton Abbey presents the ruins of an Augustinian priory and the famous river stepping stones—a perfect spot for picnics and riverside strolls. The Yorkshire Dales also offer Strid Wood's ancient oak trees, rich wildlife, and beautiful spring bluebells.

Nearby attractions include walks along the Valley of Desolation, hot air balloon rides, and the picturesque Parcevall Hall Gardens. Ripon enchants with its Gothic cathedral and lively market, while York offers its medieval walls, York Minster, and the famous Shambles. Harrogate, a Victorian spa town, adds elegance with quaint shops, fine dining, and English charm.

The estate itself provides a luxurious retreat, with scenic walking trails, biking, 4x4 tours, and wild swimming. The Wellness Centre enhances relaxation with a hydro pool, woodland sauna, steam room, yoga, and meditation. Outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy forest therapy, foraging, and curated picnic spots—making Broughton Wing a perfect getaway.

What we love

- Guests enjoy wonderful hospitality during their stay and can use the Wellbeing Centre, book trips, activities and catering, which of course come with additional fees.
- The Wellness Centre is open to all estate guests daily between 10 and 12, subject to additional costs. If you would like to book at other times, you can do so subject to availability (please see 'Extras' tab for more details).
- Weekday breakfasts are included with your stay at the on-site Bistro. It is also open for lunch, subject to additional costs (please see 'Extras' tab).

What you should know...

- Up to 2 pets are welcome in Broughton Wing on request but are subject to an additional fee of £25 per pet. Please be mindful of the historic furnishings and ensure pets don't go into the bedrooms. Please enquire at the time of booking.
- Please note that the Wellness and Bistro facilities on the estate are shared with guests staying in other properties. However, private activities and experiences can certainly be arranged! Please don't hesitate to enquire.
- Broughton Wing's entryway features a sweeping stone staircase and arched corridor, making it less suitable for those with mobility issues.
