

Broughton Place

Region: The North East Sleeps: 4

Overview

Broughton Place is a stylishly refurbished two-bedroom apartment within the magnificent Broughton Hall, offering guests a luxurious retreat immersed in history and natural beauty. Nestled on a stunning 3,000-acre estate, it's an ideal escape for families or couples exploring the Yorkshire Dales. Just minutes away, the market town of Skipton — the “gateway to the Dales” — boasts a medieval castle, charming boutiques, and an award-winning market. Established in 1097, the estate offers curated outdoor experiences, including forest therapy, wild swimming, cycling, and foraging within its ancient woodlands, parklands, and historic gardens. The on-site Wellness Center invites rejuvenation with bespoke therapies, a hydro massage pool, sauna, gym, and more, while the Bistro serves a delicious breakfast to Broughton Place guests every weekday morning.

Inside, Broughton Place is tastefully decorated with vintage furnishings, floral wallpaper, and luxury linens. The open-plan living area is warm and inviting, with natural light, a cozy fireplace, and a welcoming ambiance perfect for winter evenings. Bedrooms provide ultimate comfort, while the bathroom offers a claw-foot bath and walk-in shower for indulgent relaxation. A dedicated hospitality team ensures that each stay is uniquely special, perfect for groups of friends or small families.
