Built in 1795, this historic Manor beautifully blends traditional Scottish charm with modern comforts. Formerly a hotel, it offers a luxury setting with individually decorated bedrooms, all the en-suite bathrooms recently renovated, and high-speed WIFI throughout the house.

You can enjoy a private hotel style experience with dedicated staff, choose to self-cater, or mix both options during the stay at your convenience.

The Grand Social Hall is far more than a games room. Designed as a vibrant, multi-generational social space, it's equipped with an impressive sound system, DJ lighting and a disco ball, alongside a projector and large four-metre screen for movie nights or big events. Guests can enjoy a pool table, table tennis, cornhole, poker, beer or prosecco pong, as well as Xbox and full movie capability, making it the perfect place for everyone to come together, whatever their age or interests.

We must add that, a true Scottish experience is never complete until you have stepped into your private pub, pulled your own pint of beer (what we like to call P.Y.O.P.) or tasted the best whiskies in the world in the right setting.

You have the option to arrive at a fully stocked bar to create your own drinks or elevate your experience with a bartender who can mix cocktails and handle clear up for you. You can also choose to self-supply all your drinks or opt for a cash bar throughout your stay for added convenience.

Perthshire Manor's expansive function room is another unique space, available for celebrations and events, or simply set up as a games space (with our pool table, table tennis etc.). Surrounded by tall windows, oak panelling and thousands of fairy lights, this space can be transformed to host any event in an atmosphere that reflects your personal style with customizable décor options.

At Perthshire Manor, you'll find a surprising combination of luxury, warmth, and attentive hospitality. Discover the difference that personal touch makes in creating lasting memories.
