

The Inkwell

Region: The North East Sleeps: 6

Overview

The Inkwell is a beautifully converted stables nestled in the rolling hills of rural Northumberland, offering a perfect blend of original charm and modern luxury. With a striking original brick Smithy centerpiece in the kitchen and a private rear terrace, this countryside retreat feels timeless yet stylish. The comfortable lounge, complete with a wood-burning stove, invites you to curl up with a book or enjoy a cosy movie night with the family. The kitchen, featuring marble countertops and a mix of modern and original fittings, makes self-catering a breeze. Guests can even enjoy the "You Shop, We Drop" service, where pre-ordered groceries are put away before arrival.

Sleeping up to six guests, the property boasts a ground-floor double bedroom with an en-suite bath and shower room. Upstairs, two en-suite double bedrooms are adorned with crisp white linens, cushioned headboards, and elegant wallpaper to ensure a restful night. Outside, the private terrace provides a wonderful entertaining space, while the on-site restaurant and babysitting services make a memorable evening out effortless.

Guests can also access nearby Matfen Hall Hotel, with its luxurious spa, swimming pool, and restaurants. Explore the stunning countryside, Hadrian's Wall, and Chester's Roman Fort for a truly unforgettable Northumberland escape filled with history, relaxation, and natural beauty.

Location & Local Information

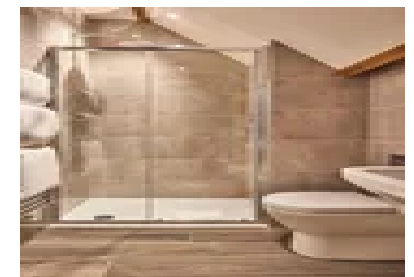

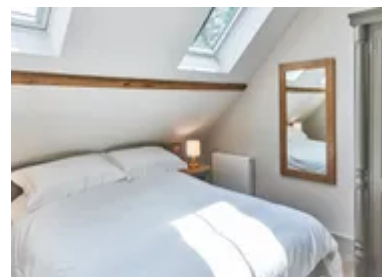

Discover the beauty of Northumberland, where rolling hills, historic landmarks, and charming towns offer the perfect setting for a memorable holiday. While just 30 minutes from the bustling city of Newcastle Upon Tyne, The Inkwel feels a world away, surrounded by unspoiled countryside and endless opportunities to explore.

History lovers can visit Chester's Roman Fort, a well-preserved site along Hadrian's Wall featuring ancient baths and officer's quarters dating back to AD 123. For a more active experience, walk or cycle sections of the wall, or book a guided tour to delve deeper into its fascinating history. The nearby market town of Hexham is another highlight, home to the stunning Hexham Abbey and Gaol Museum, both offering a glimpse into the area's rich heritage.

Nature enthusiasts will enjoy the walk to Hareshaw Linn, a scenic woodland trail leading to a striking 9m waterfall, perfect for a picnic. Further afield, Alnwick Castle and Gardens promise a day of exploration, with its historic courtyards and landscaped grounds. For leisure, try a round at Matfen Hall Golf Course or book fishing and hunting experiences through the estate. Northumberland's mix of history, nature, and activities ensures something for everyone.
