Location & Local Information

Nestled in a grove of olive trees, this villa offers a tremendous location. Drive just 5 minutes to the delightful town of Savelletri di Fasano and enjoy a beach day at the gorgeous sandy beach. Famous for its fishing tradition, whilst here, be sure to stop by the town’s picturesque fishing port and watch the local fishermen bring in their catch. For golf enthusiasts, Savelletri di Fasano is also home to some excellent golf courses, including the San Domenico Golf Club.

Moreover, just a 20-minute drive away sits the stunning town of Monopoli, characterised by its whitewashed buildings, old port and glorious beaches. Spend a day here relaxing by the sea and wandering Monopoli’s quaint narrow streets. The equally mesmerising coastal town of Polignano a Mare is only 25 minutes away by car. Spend a day at the jaw-dropping pebble beach nestled between limestone cliffs, Lama Monachile. Relax on the shore, swim in the turquoise waters, or explore the ancient Roman bridge nearby. Alternatively, take a boat tour of the town’s captivating surrounding sea caves.

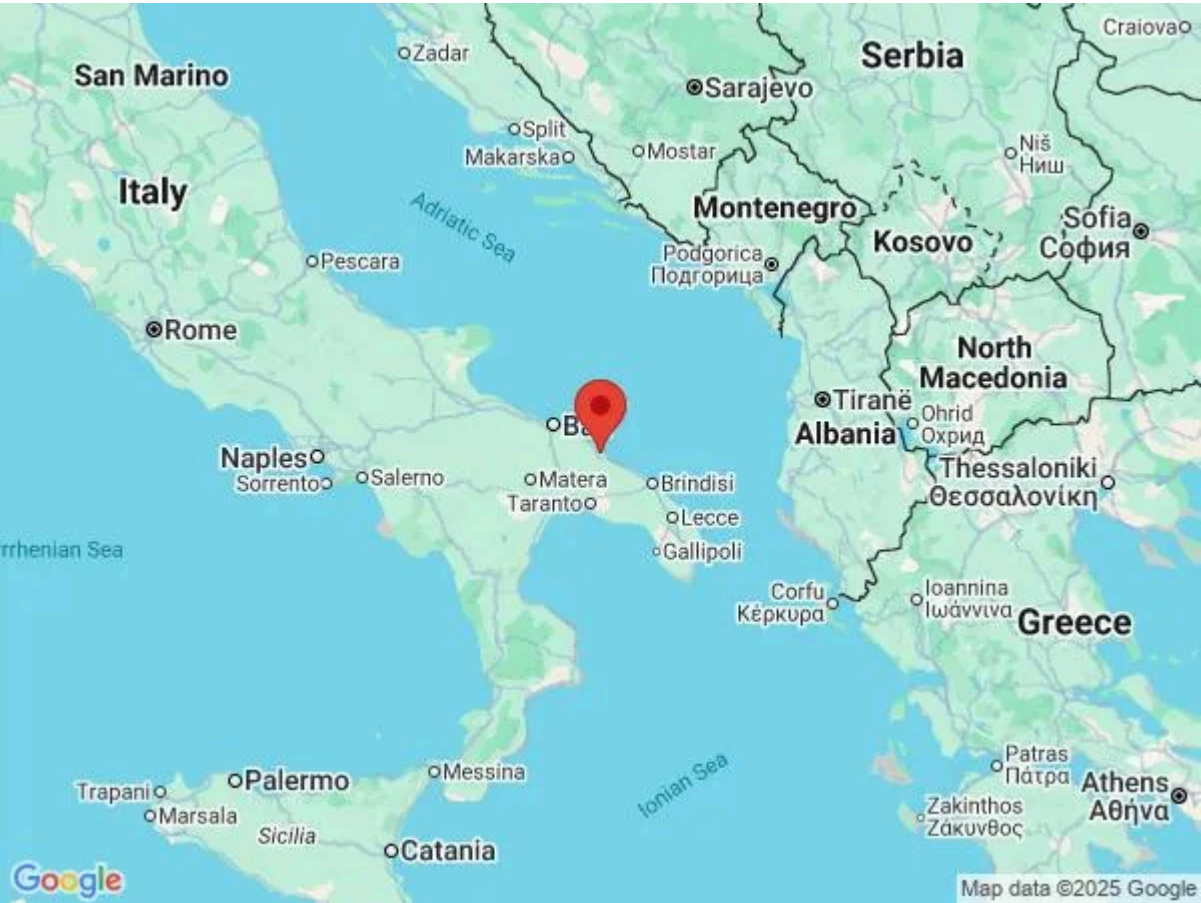

Additionally, you can reach the magical towns of Alberobello and Martina Franca in 30 minutes by car. Alberobello is well-known for its extraordinary trulli and is a must-do when visiting Puglia. Whilst in Martina Franca, wander through the historic centre admiring the elegant Baroque and Rocco architecture. Moreover, don’t miss the Palazzo Ducale and Basilica di San Martino.

Furthermore, the outstanding city of Ostuni is just a 35-minute drive from the property. Ostuni has plenty of incredible sites to see. This town is commonly known as “La Città Bianca” due to the charming white-washed buildings in its old town. Don’t miss the Duomo di Ostuni, the city walls and the Arco di Scoppa.

On top of this, the bustling city of Bari is only an hour away by car. Whilst in Bari, be sure to stop by the city’s captivating old town and the historic area of Murat, where you can discover some of the most enchanting streets in the city. Moreover, be sure to see the Cathedral of San Sabino, Porto Vecchia and Strada delle Orecchiette.
