Villa Le Cette

Region: Amalfi Coast Sleeps: 14

Overview

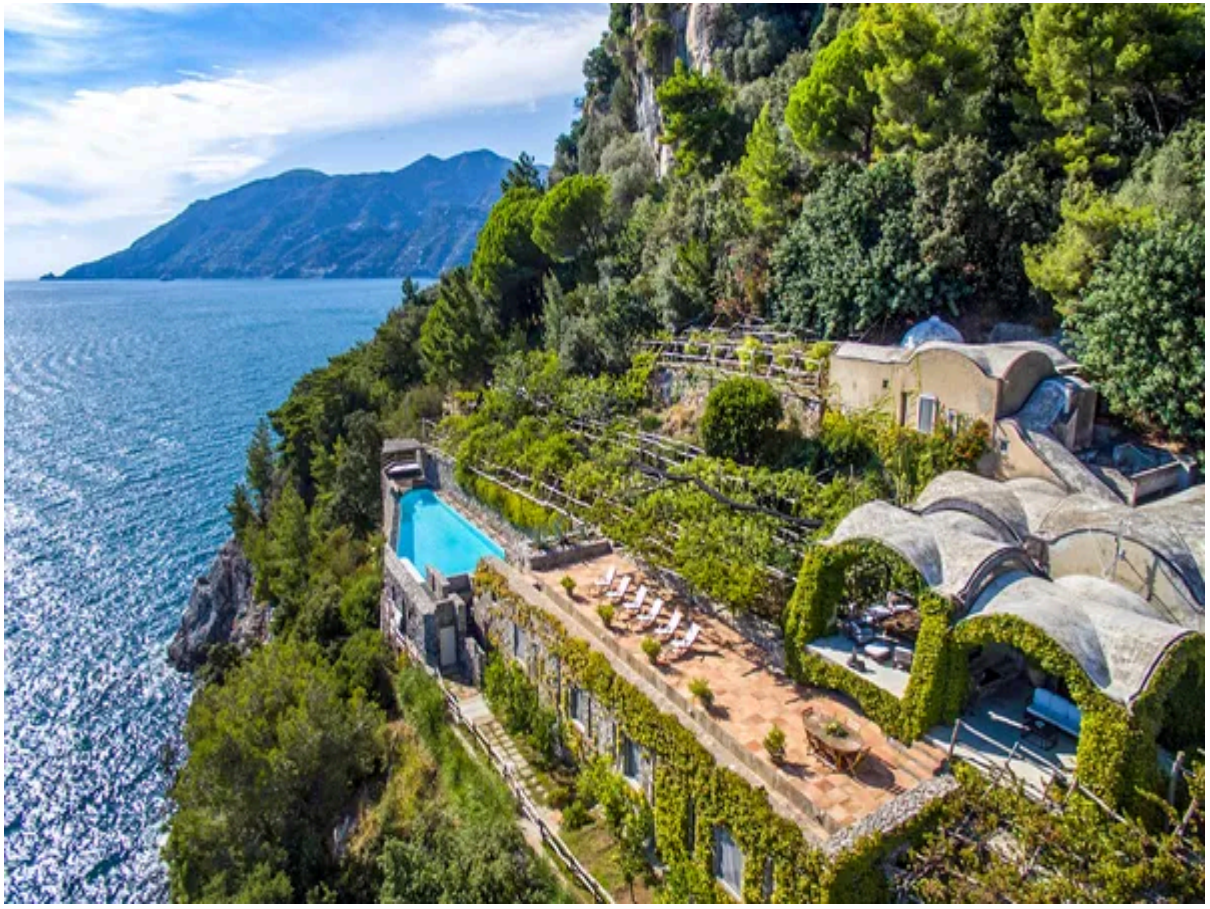

Perched above the shimmering Amalfi Coast, Villa Le Cette is a strikingly contemporary seven-bedroom retreat for up to fourteen guests, blending mid-century design with luxurious coastal living. Surrounded by lush greenery, the villa offers complete privacy and breathtaking sea views from every angle.

Guests can enjoy two spectacular swimming options — a twenty-metre infinity pool with panoramic sea views and private access to a secluded swimming cove below. For effortless comfort, electric golf carts are available to whisk guests between the villa and the shore.

Inside, sleek modern design meets Italian craftsmanship. The living room features bright whitewashed walls, metal sculptures, and ceramic artwork that reflect the region's artistic flair. The seven air-conditioned bedrooms are individually styled with floating or four-poster beds, handcrafted wooden furnishings, and crisp linens. Each has an elegant en-suite bathroom, fitted with rainfall showers or stylish bathtubs, showcasing intricate Vietri ceramic tiling.

The villa's indoor and outdoor kitchens are a chef's dream—complete with high-end appliances, a pizza oven, and a charcoal grill for alfresco feasts. Guests also share access to a private gym and a charming farmhouse nearby, home to ponies, alpacas, and other friendly animals.

Designed for relaxation and style, Villa Le Cette is an Amalfi masterpiece where contemporary elegance meets coastal serenity. With panoramic terraces, exquisite interiors, and world-class facilities, it promises an unforgettable stay surrounded by Italy's most dramatic landscapes.

Location & Local Information

Just ten minutes from Villa Le Cette, the seaside town of Maiori offers the largest beach on the Amalfi Coast, a charming harbour filled with fishing boats, and a lively yet relaxed atmosphere. With excellent shops, restaurants, and a colourful nightlife, it's perfect for beach lovers and families alike. Unlike many of the region's steeper towns, Maiori is flat and easy to explore on foot, making it an ideal spot for leisurely strolls.

A short drive away lies Amalfi, one of the coast's most picturesque towns. Its bustling harbour, whitewashed buildings, and magnificent Cathedral of Sant'Andrea create a postcard-perfect setting. Wander the narrow streets to discover artisan shops, inviting cafés, and seafood restaurants serving the region's freshest catch.

Half an hour inland sits Ravello, the famous clifftop "Balcony of the Amalfi Coast." Long favoured by artists and musicians, it's home to breathtaking villas, lush gardens, and the renowned Ravello Festival, held each summer at Villa Rufolo.

Across this scenic coastline, pastel-hued villages are filled with boutiques selling Italian leather, ceramics, and Limoncello crafted from local Sorrento lemons. Weekly markets add further charm — Ravello and Sorrento host theirs on Tuesdays, Amalfi on Thursdays, and Maiori on Fridays — offering the perfect opportunity to pick up regional delicacies or handmade treasures.

From seaside walks and beach days to shopping, fine dining, and cultural exploration, Villa Le Cette's location places guests at the very heart of the Amalfi Coast's timeless beauty and vibrancy.

What we love

- The exclusive sea access adds an extraordinary element to a stay at Villa Le Cette, with a swim in the Mediterranean waters only ever a short walk away.
- The catering staff are local to the area, so they can always source, prepare and serve the best produce the Amalfi coast offers.
- With pine woods, lemon groves and immaculate gardens right down to the water's edge, this villa showcases the striking beauty of this unique part of Italy.
