

Villa Megi

Region: Omis    Sleeps: 8

Overview

Villa Megi is a stylish four-bedroom, four-bathroom retreat in the village of Tugare, just a half an hour drive from Split. Ideal for families or groups, this newly built home offers a sleek, contemporary interior with an open-plan living and dining area, a fully equipped kitchen, and practical additions such as a laundry room. Entertainment is covered with a flat-screen television, PS4, Netflix, and complimentary Wi-Fi.

Outdoors, guests can unwind beside a ten-metre heated pool surrounded by a spacious sun deck, complete with loungers and parasols. A shaded dining terrace with a traditional barbecue sets the scene for leisurely summer evenings, while a covered lounge area and games including table tennis and table football, add to the appeal.

Upstairs, the first floor houses all four bedrooms. Two feature en-suite bathrooms and access to balconies with mountain views, while the remaining two share a spacious family bathroom with twin basins and a walk-in shower. Each bedroom is appointed with a king-size bed and ample storage. With a garage and private parking, Villa Megi offers a relaxed yet well-appointed base for exploring the Dalmatian Coast.

Location & Local Information

Villa Megi is set in the peaceful village of Tugare, with a minimarket, bar and pizzeria just a short walk away. A ten-minute drive brings you to the coastal town of Omiš, renowned for its long sandy beaches, family-friendly charm, and dramatic setting between Split and Makarska. The historic Omiš Riviera, with its cobbled streets and Mediterranean architecture, blends natural beauty with fascinating heritage, once home to shipbuilders, sand harvesters and legendary pirates.

Adventurers will find a wide choice of activities, from white-water rafting and kayaking to ziplining over the Cetina River Canyon, soaring one hundred and fifty metres above ground. Hikers can explore the 13th-century Fortress Mirabella or climb to Fortress Starigrad for panoramic views over the Brač Channel.
