

Denbigh House

Region: Anglesey Sleeps: 30

Overview

Tucked away on the beautiful Holy Island of Anglesey, Denbigh House offers the ultimate beach retreat, with the awe-inspiring backdrop of the Snowdonia mountains. Just a short ten-minute stroll from the pristine Borth Wen Bay, this stunning collection of two neighbouring holiday homes is perfect for large gatherings, comfortably sleeping up to thirty guests. Surrounded by lush gardens, you'll find a private tennis court, hot tubs, and some of the most breathtaking views in the area.

As you step inside, natural light floods both properties, enhancing the serene atmosphere created by the warm, natural textiles and contemporary décor. The spacious living areas are situated on the first floor, maximising the enjoyment of the coastal vistas. After a day exploring, gather around the large wood-burning stove in the cosy living room, or enjoy a hearty meal at the dining table, positioned perfectly by floor-to-ceiling windows. These views make every moment feel special, whether you're dining or simply unwinding.

On warmer evenings, take a drink outside and enjoy the seamless flow from the living room to the balcony terraces, where the barbecue is sizzling and the sounds of laughter fill the air. Both homes feature well-equipped kitchens with top-of-the-range amenities, ideal for preparing meals for large groups – from the Rangemaster oven to wine fridges, and two dishwashers to make clean-up a breeze.

For younger guests, each property has its own dedicated playroom or games room, complete with consoles, board games, and free Wi-Fi. It's the perfect spot to kick back and relax after an exciting day of activities.

The sleeping accommodation is as inviting as the living spaces. The first house boasts five double bedrooms, each with en-suite bathrooms, and two luxurious super-king rooms tucked under the eaves of the second floor, offering stunning views of the bay. Meanwhile, the second house features spacious rooms with nautical-themed touches for younger guests, including a delightful bunk room with its own Nintendo library.

Outside, the private tennis court and hot tubs provide endless opportunities for fun and relaxation. After a game of tennis or table tennis, swing in a hanging chair or soak in the bubbles as you take in the views. The beach is just moments away, with coastal walks to explore and the vast beauty of the area at your doorstep. Denbigh House truly offers a perfect escape, where comfort, stunning views, and endless activities await.

Location & Local Information

Set in its own delightful grounds Denbigh House benefits from breath-taking vistas at every angle. Watch the sunrise over nearby Borth Wen Bay, within easy walking distance, ideal for enjoying a lovely coastal walk or getting stuck in with a bucket and spade. Backed by sand dunes this is a lovely safe beach where children can paddle or stretch your legs with the circular walk along Rhoscolyn beach towards the headland.

If you are looking for a night off from cooking, then we recommend a trip to the excellent local pub, The White Eagle. A real hidden gem, this pub is often referred to as the best on the island, with an elevated outdoor terrace, mouth-watering roasts and a selection of ales, all complimented by a stunning view, just two minutes from your door.

Why not visit the only working windmill in Wales at Llynnon Mill? Built in 1775 the mill still produces wholemeal flour, whilst two neighbouring roundhouses provide a unique insight into the farming practise and lifestyle of the Iron Age. There is also a wonderful on-site café to grab some lunch or a slice of cake during your visit.

If you want to get out on the waves, we recommend a visit to Beaumaris Pier to grab a boat trip to Puffin Island. Skippers will steer you past the seal colony and seal cave at Penmon Point lighthouse, whilst the Island itself has a plethora of birdlife from cormorants, guillemots and of course puffins! If you are lucky you may even spot bottlenose dolphins or harbour porpoises swimming by.

A trip into the Snowdonia national park is a must during your stay. Whether you are looking to climb the highest peaks or just take in the natural beauty of the National Park there is something for everyone. We recommend the Llyn Cwellyn Boardwalk trail, an easy access lakeside walk that meanders between two soaring mountain peaks. If hiking isn't your thing then why not hop on board the seasonal Snowdon Railway, surely one of the most picturesque train rides in the world, with stunning scenery and awe-inspiring views you can ride the rail right to the summit without any exertion needed!
