

Villa Ouahat

Region: Morocco Sleeps: 16

Overview

Everyone loves Villa Ouahat, golfers, children, grandparents and anyone looking to relax and rejuvenate. This fabulous, modern property sits within a two-acre landscaped garden, within one hundred metres of the Palmeraie Golf course to the north of the city centre. The villa boasts a brilliant team of staff who will pamper you and ensure that you enjoy the holiday of your dreams. The villa is great for groups of friends or multi-generational families as it offers seven very spacious bedrooms, including one children's room for four. It also boasts a gorgeous swimming pool, a fabulous pool house for alfresco dining and lounging, a games area and fantastic living spaces. Charm, space, contemporary furnishings, and calm, natural colour palettes come in lavish abundance.

You arrive at Villa Ouahat in a charming outdoor courtyard attached to the main building. You will quickly discover two gorgeous living areas, a games area and a delightful dining room. One of these offers sumptuous sofas and armchairs, a television, a gorgeous fireplace and some giant modern artworks. It opens to a covered terrace that overlooks the garden. The other room enjoys a huge open fireplace and yet more modern sofas and chairs. At the far end of the room is the games area with its pool table. Two walls of glass open to the garden and terraces, also drowning it in natural light. The dining room is a lovely space with an intricately carved dresser and stunning garden and pool views.

Villa Ouahat boasts seven bedrooms, two of which are on the ground floor and the remainder upstairs. One ground-floor bedroom offers a beautifully dressed double bed and an ensuite bathroom, all in soft grey and taupe tones. The other is perfect for children or as a family room. It offers four single beds, two of which could be put together to form a kingsize bed. This room also boasts an ensuite bathroom. Both ground-floor bedrooms offer direct access to the garden and terrace. Upstairs, two rooms offer flexible sleeping arrangements with kingsize beds that can be set up as twins. One offers an ensuite, and the second shares a family bathroom with bedroom five, which enjoys a comfy double bed. The remaining two rooms enjoy double beds adorned with lux linens and exquisite soft furnishings and ensuite bathrooms. A number of the upper rooms enjoy private terraces, and if you are lucky, you will get a bath with a view where you can soak your stresses away!

Outside, you will discover gardens that will capture your heart. The twenty-five-metre swimming pool is surrounded by loungers and the pool house, where you can dine alfresco or enjoy pre-dinner drinks on divine contemporary furniture. There is even an open fireplace should a chill descend on the evening or should you want to enjoy a crackling atmosphere. You could also use the poolhouse for yoga, pilates or dance exercise. Little ones enjoy table tennis, boules, the trampoline and the vast gardens.

Please note that the kitchen is for staff usage only; guests are not allowed to cook or prepare any meal. Usage of the kitchen for nibbles (tea, coffee, sandwich, etc.) might be allowed prior to agreement with the owner/property manager.

Location & Local Information

Villa Ouahat enjoys a peaceful, tranquil location just outside of Marrakech's Medina. This beautifully landscaped area of the Palmeraie is smart, attractive and sophisticated. It connects Casablanca to Fez. Golf enthusiasts enjoy the Golf de la Palmeraie club, which is moments from the villa. An equestrian centre and camel riding are also nearby. Quad bikes are also popular, and hot air balloon rides with Marrakech Balloon.

Marrakech is a bustling, colourful city that will blow your mind with its heady smells, sounds and sights. In 1985 its Medina was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Full of fragrant, colourful spices, glistening silver lamps with the promise of a genie, vibrant carpets and leather in every shade imaginable, it also offers rich, ancient architecture. Its souks are loud, thrilling and fun. You can learn to barter, and you will discover snake charmers, storytellers and potion sellers. Dining in the Medina is an adventure which will set your tastebuds tingling. Smoke rises from barbecues which are enjoyed along with Gnawa musicians, acrobats and fortune tellers. The famous Patisserie des Princes is perfect for sweet treats and ice cream afterwards. Many of the riads boast exquisite restaurants for fine dining experiences where you will enjoy creative, spice-laced modern Moroccan menus. Many of the restaurants are on rooftops with glorious views of the city and the mountains. Hammams were introduced to the city by the Romans and adapted to fit Islamic ablution rituals. Visitors enjoy wonderful hammam experiences at Hammam de la Rose, the Farnatchi Spa, the deluxe Royal Mansour and many other spas.

Marrakech enjoys many stunning buildings. The Bahia Palace was built in the late 19th century and now forms the centre of the city's culture. It boasts incredible decor along with high, gilded ceilings, mosaics, stuccos, paintings, the mesmerising quarters of Bou Ahmed's favourite concubine, Lalla Zineb and an enormous landscaped garden.

Marrakech enjoys an excellent collection of museums, including Maison de la Photographie, a three-storey riad-turned-gallery housing the vintage Moroccan photography collection of Patrick Menac'h and Marrakshi Hamid Mergani. Its rooftop cafe is one of the highest in Medina. The Musee Tiskiwin displays the history of Marrakech and the region in general. The Dar Si Said Museum is an exhibition of historic and contemporary Moroccan art, full of intricate Byzantine designs and colours. The Music Museum is located in the Saadian quarter, built in the 16th and 17th centuries. The reception of the museum is a jewel of Arab-Andalusian architecture.

The area around Marrakech's Medina is sprinkled with magical gardens. Le Jardin Secret is one of Medina's largest and most important gardens, with a Persian garden full of tufty grasses and olive, pomegranate, fig and date trees and a second smaller garden offering exotic plants. An elaborate irrigation system weaves its way through the gardens, part of an ancient network that once distributed water from artesian wells and fed by the mountains. When fashion icon Yves St Laurent arrived in the city in 1964, he was overwhelmed by the city and its vivacity. He lived in the Jardin Majorelle with his partner, a lush garden painted with an intense shade of ultramarine blue. It is full of giant cacti, palms and bamboo groves. The Berber Museum is filled with Yves St Laurent's personal jewellery and fashion collection, and the Musee Yves St Laurent offers a stunning choreography presentation of the clothes in a dramatic black hall.

Visitors to Marrakech usually enjoy combining trips to the Medina with excursions into the mountains and its mountain villages. It is the perfect contrast to the thrillingly frantic energy of the Medina and the buzz of its museums, palaces and gardens. After a delicious Moroccan feast around Djemaa El Fna, you can trek up Northern Africa's highest peak, Mount Toubkal or enjoy a surprising experience of North African skiing at Oukaïmeden. The Atlas Mountains are sprinkled with pretty villages, beautiful waterfalls and dramatic viewpoints. Imlil is a popular hub to start exploring, and the Bureau des Guides d'Imlil can arrange guides. You will enjoy unforgettable day trips, visit traditional villages, taste delicious food, and enjoy the fabulous scenery and a mesmerising mix of Berber, Arabian and European cultural influences. You will also discover some of the best golf courses in Marrakech, including the Amelkis Championship Golf Course and the Marrakech Royal Golf Club.
