Location & Local Information

Dar Diabat enjoys a peaceful and privileged setting within the Sofitel Essaouira Mogador Golf and Spa Resort, offering guests easy access to world-class facilities and the relaxed charm of Essaouira's Atlantic coastline. This coastal gem is known for its wide sandy beaches, fresh seafood, and vibrant artistic spirit. The ever-present ocean breeze, known as the Alizee, gives Essaouira its nickname, the "Wind City of Africa," making it a paradise for windsurfing and kitesurfing enthusiasts. Beyond its beaches, the resort provides an ideal base to explore Essaouira's historic Medina, a UNESCO World Heritage Site filled with whitewashed buildings, blue-trimmed facades, art galleries, and boutique shops. Visitors can wander its palm-lined streets, admire the 18th-century ramparts, and enjoy breathtaking sunsets over the Atlantic from the city walls.

The harbour and bustling fish market capture the essence of Essaouira's seafaring culture, where colourful wooden boats, fishermen mending nets, and open-air seafood stalls create a lively atmosphere. Along the six-mile stretch of beach, visitors can enjoy camel rides, horse trekking, or walks to the ruins of Borj El Berod and the dunes of Cap Sim. In June, the city hosts the Gnaoua World Music Festival, a three-day celebration of rhythm and spirituality that fills the streets with music, colour, and energy. Whether exploring the Medina's timeless charm, sampling fresh catch at the harbour, or simply relaxing by the ocean, guests at Dar Diabat can enjoy the very best of Essaouira's coastal beauty, culture, and laid-back allure.
