

Villa Enoki

Region: Zakynthos Sleeps: 10

Overview

Step into timeless elegance at Villa Enoki, a refined countryside retreat on the Greek island of Zakynthos. Set amid fragrant lemon, orange, and olive groves, this five-bedroom villa sleeps up to ten guests, offering a tranquil escape for families or groups of friends.

This two-storey residence combines classic Mediterranean architecture with the grandeur of a French country house. Inside, jewel-toned interiors, marble floors, and richly upholstered furnishings create a sense of warmth and sophistication. Two formal living rooms offer ample space for relaxing, while the fully equipped kitchen includes a charming dining area for leisurely breakfasts.

Each of the five double bedrooms is beautifully styled, with French doors opening to balconies or verandas. Four rooms feature double beds, including elegant four-posters, while one offers twin beds convertible to a double. Four modern bathrooms, some en-suite, include both walk-in showers and a family bathtub.

Outside, the villa's private pool is the focal point, surrounded by wooden loungers and shaded lawns. A built-in bar, canopied dining space, and traditional brick barbecue invite guests to gather for alfresco meals and evening drinks under the stars. With private parking, air conditioning, and Wi-Fi throughout, Villa Enoki blends comfort, style, and authenticity in a serene Zakynthian setting.

Location & Local Information

Villa Enoki is set in the tranquil countryside near the village of Agios Kirikos on the Greek island of Zakynthos in the Ionian Sea. Just ten kilometres from Zakynthos International Airport, it is also accessible by ferry to Agios Nikolaos port. The nearby village of Agios Kirikos is within walking distance and offers essential provisions along with a selection of cafés, bars, and traditional tavernas.

A ten-minute drive brings you to the vibrant resort of Tsilivi, where you'll find banks, supermarkets, restaurants, and a sandy beach offering pedaloes, jet skiing, and parasailing. Close by, Planos boasts another organised beach with sun loungers and parasols. Further afield, the lively town of Laganas is known for its seafront bars, restaurants, water sports, thermal springs, and nesting turtles, as well as its renowned nightlife. Zante's famous Pure Beach Club hosts all-day parties with a state-of-the-art sound system and Champagne Spray events.

The area is ideal for hiking, with scenic trails revealing the island's flora and fauna. Just seven kilometres away, Zante Town invites you to explore its Byzantine Museum, historic churches, and Venetian architecture. Enjoy guided walking tours from Solomos Square, browse local boutiques, and unwind in bouzouki bars with a glass of ouzo.

From Zante harbour, set sail on a catamaran tour or hire a private yacht to discover hidden bays, snorkel in crystal-clear waters, and dine onboard at sunset. In the southwest, Keri Lake offers a mix of sea, forest, and farmland, perfect for walks through pine groves or boat trips to the Keri Caves. Don't miss the hilltop village of Bochali with its Venetian castle, panoramic views, and the charming Zoodos Pigi church. Wine lovers can tour local vineyards, and if your timing is right, experience the exuberant Zante Carnival – a celebration of Venetian heritage with dancing, wine, and a festive finale of cheese.
