

Villa Petuni

Region: Croatia Sleeps: 6

Overview

Located on Croatia's stunning Istrian peninsula, Villa Petuni is an elegant three-bedroom property boasting a private swimming pool and an abundance of contemporary charm. Providing guests with an idyllic retreat only twelve kilometres away from the lively seaside town of Poreč, the villa is the perfect place to relax and unwind with your loved ones as you explore the spectacular natural beauty that Istria has to offer.

You can enjoy a refreshing dip in the swimming pool or simply unwind on a sun lounger with a freshly brewed cup of coffee. The secluded stone terrace also offers a private Mediterranean garden, making it ideal for family fun and games in the sun or a morning of complete rest and relaxation. Spend the rest of the day by the pool or make your way to the beautiful Istrian coast for a refreshing ocean swim. Later on, gather everyone together for a delicious barbecue at the villa's covered outdoor dining area, which features a convenient summer kitchen. Meanwhile, the outdoor lounge area offers a dreamlike spot for a glass of local wine at sunset.

Guests will find a contemporary living space on the ground floor inside the villa, featuring an open-plan layout and stylish décor. Rustic wooden ceiling beams and characterful archways enhance the warm and welcoming ambience of this space, where an inviting lounge area features sumptuous sofas and a flat-screen TV. A modern kitchen is fully equipped with everything you might need to prepare a home-cooked feast with the fresh local produce you have discovered, while a casual dining area at the kitchen's island offers room for everyone to come together and discuss the day's adventures. The ground floor also features a family bathroom and a convenient utility room.

Upstairs, you will find Villa Petuni's three double bedrooms, each of which features a modern en-suite bathroom with a walk-in shower. The master bedroom offers access to a private balcony, perfect for soaking up the early morning sunshine or enjoying a quiet moment under the stars. The villa is fully air-conditioned throughout.

Location & Local Information

Situated in the Istrian village of Matulini, Villa Petuni offers guests a peaceful location just twelve kilometres away from the vibrant seaside town of Poreč. With a fascinating history that dates back to Roman times, the Poreč of today is a bustling town with picturesque cobblestone streets, impressive historical landmarks and a lively atmosphere!

Spend a sunny afternoon wandering through the old town of Poreč, perched on a tiny peninsula and surrounded by stunning views of the turquoise Adriatic Sea. Here, history lovers will be captivated by a visit to the Euphrasian Basilica, the town's most significant cultural monument and a UNESCO World Heritage site. The Zuccato Palace is a Gothic palace with a beautifully preserved façade, which today houses a small gallery. The palace is located on Decumanus Street, a famous street that provides an authentic glimpse into Istria's colourful past thanks to its many historical sites. Today, Decumanus Street is also a popular shopping area, with plenty of independent boutiques and gift shops that sit alongside cute local cafes and traditional restaurants.

Only a fifteen-minute drive from Poreč, the Baredine Cave offers something different for adventure-seeking visitors! Take a subterranean tour of this unique cave system some sixty metres below the ground, where you will witness stalactites, stalagmites and mesmerising underground lakes. Don't forget to wear comfortable footwear and warm clothing before descending underground, where friendly and experienced guides will provide fascinating cave tours and an in-depth look at the history of this unique part of Istria.

After a morning exploring the region's ancient caves, make your way to the sun-drenched Istrian coast to while away the afternoon. Only twenty minutes from Matulini, Zelena Laguna Beach is one of Poreč's most beautiful beaches, with warm, crystal-clear waters and secluded shores. Nearby Delfin Beach offers visitors an array of water sports facilities, including sea kayaks and jet ski rentals. The beach is surrounded by fragrant pine trees, which provide shade and seclusion. Meanwhile, the spectacular beaches on the island of St. Nicholas are only a ten-minute ferry journey from Poreč's seafront promenade.

Hiking and biking enthusiasts will be delighted by Vrsar, a quaint fishing village that is home to several scenic trails along the coast. Only thirty-five minutes away from Matulini by car, Rovinj is a seaside town with a labyrinth of narrow streets and colourful architecture to discover. Here, you can explore the enchanting old town before making your way to the hilltop Church of St. Euphemia, where you can take in panoramic views of the ocean and the cluster of tiny islands surrounding Rovinj. Later on, relax by the shimmering waters of Lone Bay Beach or enjoy a variety of water sports on Mulini Beach before making your way home to Villa Petuni in time for a sunset swim and dinner on the terrace.
