Location & Local Information

Can Traves is based just over 5 minutes away from the centre of Soller, a region that is well recognised for its immense history and diverse portfolio of iconic landmarks. If you wish to explore the religious legacy of this area from a much more intimate and personal perspective, you must take the time to visit Sant Bartomeu de Soller. This archaic church was first constructed in 1236 but has undergone many renovations and repairs in its time. Nowadays, it presents a typical 18th-century style, showcasing a wide collection of remarkable Romanesque and Gothic motifs. Travelling inside, guests can marvel at a tremendous array of authentic artefacts and fixtures, giving them a better idea of how this faith influences the conventional customs of this region. Sant Bartomeu de Soller is located around 5 minutes away from the villa.

Can Prunera is a prestigious modernist art museum that can be found just under 10 minutes away from Can Traves. Here, you will come across an abundance of alluring art pieces, all of which exemplify the intricacies of this genre-defining art scene. Guests will have the privilege of observing inspiring pieces from prolific artists such as Miro and Picasso, ensuring that guests can gain a true taste of the immense creativity that flows throughout this area. The basement level of this museum hosts a nostalgic kitchen, complete with dated products and appliances to help guests better understand how the local people thrived during these times.

If you are looking to embark on a truly riveting experience during your time on holiday, a scuba diving excursion is a real treat. Octopus Mallorca is a prized watersports establishment that offers a bustling array of immersive courses and workshops. During this experience, guests will work alongside a trained instructor who will guide them through a collection of essential safety briefings to ensure that they feel completely safe and secure at all times. As soon as you submerge yourself underwater, you will come across a plethora of remarkable marine wildlife, giving you a much deeper understanding of the rich biodiversity seen throughout this region. Octopus Mallorca is situated just over 10 minutes away from the villa.
