Location & Local Information

Bonaire Lux boasts a stunning location on the hillside in Bonaire, a beautiful, exclusive and quiet residential area with two romantic little beaches. Playa de Sant Pere is a charming, peaceful beach with fine sand, crystal clear water and Playa de Sant Joan, equally lovely, is just around the corner. Both beaches are just minutes away from this phenomenal holiday property.

The tourist hub of Alcudia is within effortless reach, as is the ever-popular Port d'Alcudia with its seven-mile-long Blue Flag beach. Alcudia's picturesque marina is the waterside setting for many trendy bars and restaurants. It is a buzzy hub of activity with many boat excursions running from it, including day trips to Menorca, dolphin-watching tours and glass-bottomed boats. The romantic Alcudia Old Town is wonderfully atmospheric with narrow cobbled streets, Romeo and Juliet balconies, cosy, authentic cafes, unique little boutiques, fantastic gastronomic restaurants and fabulous tapas bars. It also boasts a vibrant open-air market which you should definitely go to. Visitors can walk around the entire perimeter of the medieval walls, either on the inside using the Cami de Ronde route or on the outside, using what has now become a garden walk. From the top of the walls, you can enjoy wonderful panoramic views of the Bay of Pollensa. Alcudia Old Town hosts many cultural events, including traditional fiestas and classical music festivals. Alcudia Old Town boasts an incredible history. The Romans brought an end to piracy and built the town, but later, Alcudia was destroyed in the 6th century. The town returned to greatness under the Moors. The Old Town's narrow streets, especially Carrer d'en Serra, are resonant with its Arab past. The walls you see today were added in the early 14th century under the rule of King Jaume II. You shouldn't miss the fabulous Neo-Gothic Sant Jaume Church and the fantastic Sa Bassa Blanca Museum, home to amazing contemporary art and stunning gardens. Alcudia's Roman ruins and museum, just outside the walls, are very interesting.

Pollensa and Puerto Pollensa are also just a short drive away. Pollensa is an ancient, charming, attractive, walled town with stunning architecture, modern art galleries, fabulous boutiques, chic, gastronomic restaurants and a lively market. Puerto Pollensa is wonderful with its dazzling white sand and shallow, warm water. Further on, Formentor is spectacular and worth the bumpy drive to get there.

There are several vineyards close by where you can taste some delicious wines. Bodegas Can Vidalet at Pollensa and Bodega Butxet are excellent. The Mortitx winery, hidden off a winding road between Pollensa and Lluc, is a young and up-and-coming contender in the Balearic wine market. It is worth navigating the hairpin bends of the Tramuntana mountain range to find it.

Alcudia Old Town is located on a peninsula separating the bays of Pollensa and Alcudia. The town boasts an incredible history. The Romans ended piracy and built the town, but Alcudia was then destroyed in the 6th century. The town returned to greatness under the Moors. The walls you see today were added in the early 14th century under the rule of King Jaume II. Can Torro is the library of Alcudia, a beautiful mansion dating back to the early Middle Ages? Alcudia Old Town oozes charm from its lovely sandstone architecture, prettiest in the golden-hued late afternoon sunlight. The compact Old Town has charming narrow streets, first-class gastronomic restaurants, trendy bars and gorgeous boutiques. Alcudia's colourful market is very popular, as are the delicious tapas and the sangria available throughout the Old Town. Visitors can walk around the entire perimeter of the medieval walls, either on the inside using the Cami de Ronde route or on the outside, using what has now become a garden walk. From the top of the walls, visitors enjoy lovely panoramic views of the Bay of Pollensa. You can also visit the bullring, the Roman ruins, the museum, the theatre and Sant Jaume Church. Sant Jaume Church was built in Neo-Gothic style and was finished in 1893 after the first church built in the 14th century fell into disrepair. The church was named after its founder King Jaume II. Art lovers enjoy the fantastic Sa Bassa Blanca Museum created by Yannick and Ben Jakober. Situated in an old palace overlooking the stunning bay and harbour of Alcudia and Port Alcudia from its location on the slopes of Alcanada, it is one of the most impressive exhibition halls in Mallorca. There is a lovely collection of animal sculptures in the garden. The town hosts many cultural events, including traditional fiestas, classical music festivals, frequent live music and open-air plays.

The beach at Puerto Pollensa boasts silvery white sand and shallow, warm water. There is a delightful pine walk where you can amble under the pine trees enjoying authentic old buildings and amazing views. In Pollensa Old Town, visitors are greeted by majestic old town walls and are enchanted by the lively main square, Placa Major. The square offers excellent restaurants, coffee and people-watching. Pollensa's bustling, popular Sunday market enjoys delicious food stands and many selling souvenirs and leather goods. The famous 365 Calvari Steps from Placa Major take you to the top of the town, where you can visit the pretty Church of Nostra Senyora dels Angels. Light spills through the stained glass windows to illuminate its gorgeous interior. The views from the top are astonishing. Museo Dionis Bennassar, an unexpected treasure and the home of a famous local artist, is found just off the Placa Major. Pollensa offers stunning architecture, modern art galleries, amazing shops, delicious restaurants and a lively market.

As well as stunning beaches, fantastic historic towns and lively ports, nature reigns supreme in Mallorca. The island is famous for its dramatic mountains, fabulous mountain roads, and excellent hiking paths. Twelve walking routes exist to explore this beautiful paradise, all offering breathtaking panoramic views of the coast, mountains and marshes set against the intense blue backdrop of the Mediterranean Sea. The ancient monastery Puig de Pollensa sits atop a mountain close to Pollensa town, offering outstanding views of the Pollensa Bay, the Cap de Formentor and the majestic Tramuntana mountains. You can walk up to the Puig in approximately 40 minutes and enjoy some refreshments at the cafe at the top or use the picnic tables.

Mallorca also boasts some amazing vineyards where you can taste some delicious wines. Bodegas Can Vidalet at Pollensa and Bodega Butxet are excellent. The Mortitx winery, hidden off a winding road between Pollensa and Lluc, is a young and up-and-coming contender in the Balearic wine market.
