Villa Tacai

Region: Morocco Sleeps: 12

Overview

Villa Tacai is a stylish retreat in Marrakech, combining contemporary design with moments of pure relaxation. The exterior features a sparkling swimming pool, perfect for cooling off after a day of exploration, alongside a peaceful garden and chic terraces where guests can unwind while enjoying the surrounding views. These outdoor spaces create a calm setting for both leisure and conversation.

Inside, the villa blends sophistication with comfort. The living room overlooks the garden, offering a serene place to relax, while the dining area, with its long wooden table and thoughtful décor, invites guests to share meals and memories. A private chef ensures exceptional dining experiences, showcasing authentic regional flavours without any effort required. Upstairs, six spacious bedrooms each feature a king-size bed with crisp linens, providing restful nights and a tranquil base for discovering Marrakech and beyond.

Location & Local Information

Just 30 minutes from Villa Tacai, Marrakech offers world-class cultural experiences. Fashion enthusiasts will love the Yves Saint Laurent Museum, which celebrates the designer's life and creative legacy through exhibitions such as Gardens and Art and Imaginary Voyages. The museum also highlights his close ties to Marrakech, making it an inspiring stop for anyone eager to see the city through a different lens. Another must-visit is the Majorelle Garden, a botanical masterpiece blending art and nature since 1932. Filled with exotic plants, striking cacti displays, and home to over 15 bird species, it offers a peaceful escape from the city's bustle.

Closer still is the famous Jemaa el-Fnaa, just 25 minutes away. This lively square is ever-changing, by day, it buzzes with snake charmers and street performers, while evenings bring food stalls and live music. It's the perfect place to sample local flavours, soak up the atmosphere, and experience Marrakech's vibrant heart.
