The Eixample neighbourhood of Barcelona is known as one of the city's most remarkable – and that really is some feat in a city as funky as the Catalan capital! Atmospheric laneways bursting with life house an incredible variety of cafés, restaurants, and tapas bars to satisfy all your food cravings, and the range of flavours to be found is truly staggering, mixing international influences with robust local favourites. Fans of tapas are in luck! Eixample has some top-notch tapas options where it's possible to feast on mouth-watering Mediterranean and Spanish dishes that showcase the essence and fresh produce of the region. Soak up the laid-back, local vibes, dive into the rich Catalan culture, and savour delicious bites accompanied by the best Spanish wines or a pitcher of chilled Sangria.

The apartment is also within easy reach of many of the city's other iconic neighbourhoods. History buffs and culture vultures may well rejoice, as a veritable plethora of art galleries, museums, and architectural wonders – including those designed by Gaudi – can be found littered all around these characterful areas.

One of our favourites has to be the Museu d'Història de Barcelona (MUHBA) is also just a short distance from the home and showcases the city's rich past through archaeological artefacts and interactive exhibits.

Alternatively, immerse yourself in the local culture by visiting one of Barcelona's food markets, including the Barceloneta neighbourhood and the Boqueria Market along La Rambla. These vibrant markets offer an array of fresh produce, seafood, and loads of local delicacies. Browse through the stalls, sample some tasty treats, and experience the captivating atmosphere of a traditional Spanish market.

The nearby sandy beach at Barceloneta offers a whole host of activities, from sunbathing and swimming to beach volleyball and water sports.
